

JOURNOT — ELLIS

Daniel Joseph Ellis and Katelynn Rae Journot (now Katelynn Rae Ellis) were married Dec. 2, 2017.

We met five years ago while we were both volunteering with the Pilot Rock Fire Department.

We got married at the Westminster Woods Chapel in Meacham, Oregon. We both love the the winter season and spending our free time in the mountains. We were blessed to exchange our vows in a cozy chapel tucked away in the beautiful snowy Blue Mountains. We will forever cherish the memories made that day.

— Katelynn Rae Ellis

Photo credit: Bailey Lankford Photography

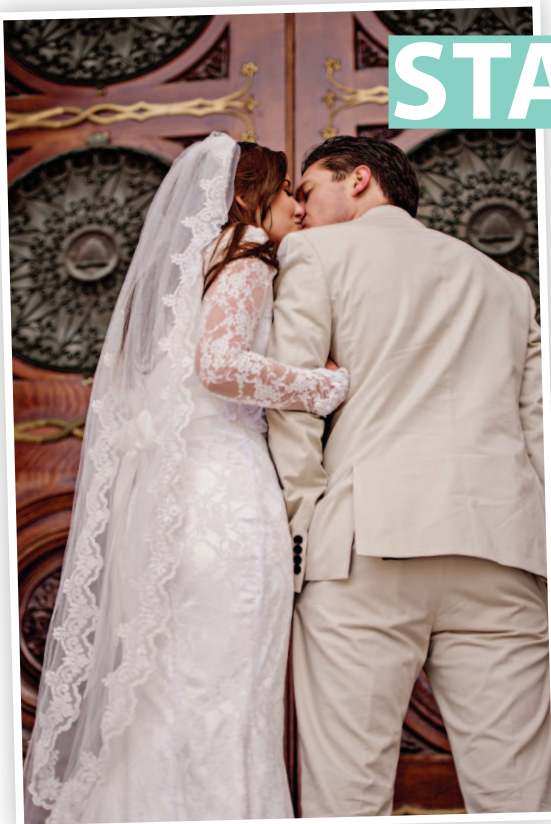

Photo credit: Freshly Captured Photography

STARTUP — SLIVKA

Jake and I met in probably the most romantic way ever: flipping burgers! We were both going to school and worked part-time at a little cafe. What started out as late nights making shakes, cleaning and closing up shop turned into our first canoeing date ... then late-night conversations, pizza runs and movie nights. I started looking forward to the nights I spent making burgers and fries, because it meant I could spend my nights with him. Crazy to think that our love story started there, but I'm so grateful it did. We are definitely long past that stage in our lives, but will remember and cherish that stage forever. To commemorate how we met, Jake and I drove to our favorite burger joint right after we got married and ate greasy burgers in the parking lot, in my wedding dress and all. Wouldn't have had it any other way!

— Peyton Slivka