Oregon breezes past Colorado and into Pac-12 tournament semis

By JIM HOEHN

SEATTLE — Oregon freshman Satou Sabally adjusted quickly to conference tournament play.

The 6-foot-4 forward scored 21 points and Lexi Bando added 19 to help No. 6 Oregon beat Colorado 84-47 in the Pac-12 quarterfinals Friday.

The Ducks, the regular-season conference champions, will face the winner of No. 9 UCLA and California in Saturday's semifinals.

Oregon (28-4) led 45-18 at the halftime and used a 22-0 third-quarter run for a 77-37 lead entering the final period.

"I was just impressed with our energy on both ends of the floor, defensively and offensively we were on point," Oregon coach Kelly Graves said. "We spread the floor. We were shooting it well. The right people were getting the shots. It was just a really good game. I told them after the game they were inspiring."

Freshman forward Mya Hollingshed had 20 points, and Kennedy Leonard added 13 for ninth-seeded Colorado (15-16), which upended Utah 66-56 in the opening round.

Colorado coach JR Payne said. "You don't get to be a Top 10 team in the country by luck and they certainly showed why they're such a great team." Ruthy Hebard added 11 points and 11 rebounds, and Sabrina Ionescu had 10 points, eight rebounds and tied a tournament record with 13 assists for the Ducks.

"Our coaches just told us that we had to be ready, so I think that's what it was," Sabally said. "We were just ready to play and I was dialed in. My teammates were all just dialed in."

Oregon was hot early from beyond the arc. The Ducks jumped in front 8-0 with consecutive 3-pointers by Maite Cazorla and Bando. Oregon pushed its lead to 20-9 with six of its first seven baskets from 3-point range.

The Ducks never let Colorado back into the game, using a 14-0 run to push the lead to 43-16 with 1:10 left in the half.

"We knew they were going to come out and they were going to play hard, and they were going to play hard the rest of the game," Ionescu said about Oregon's strong second-half performance. "We knew Kennedy and their guards were going to continue to take it to us. So, we knew that we had to continue to play well and grow as a team. You never know what happens in March, so we did not want to let them get back into the game."

STATS Although they cooled off from long range, the Ducks shot 54.8 percent in the first half. Bando finished 6 of 9 from beyond the arc. The Ducks finished with a 40-24 advantage on the boards.

Arizona State's Robbi Ryan (11) yells after scoring against Oregon State late in the second half of an NCAA college basketball game in the quarterfinals of the Pac-12 women's tournament on Friday in Seattle.

SEATTLE — Courtney Elmark scored 18 points and Arizona State held No. 10 Oregon State without a field goal over the final 5:14 to rally for a 57-51 victory in the quarterfinals of the Pac-12 Tournament on Friday night.

Arizona State missed its first nine shots of the fourth quarter, but the Beavers managed just a pair of baskets for a 50-44 lead.

Kianna Ibis finally connected for the Sun Devils with 3:38 remaining, triggering the game-ending 13-1 run. Ibis' jumper from the lane put Arizona State in

left side to make it 53-50 with 1:08 remaining and the Sun Devils closed it out from the free throw line.

Arizona State (21-11) advanced to Saturday's semifinals against No. 16 Stanford (21-9), which beat Southern California 69-59.

Ibis finished with 14 points and a career-high 14 rebounds, and Robbi Ryan added 12 points for the Sun Devils, who lost two close conference games to Oregon State, 57-54 and 64-60 in the regular-season finale. Mikayla Pivec and Katie McWilliams each had 14 points for Oregon State (23-7), which shot just 2 for 15 in a five-point fourth quarter, including 0 of 5 from 3-point range.

The Sun Devils scored the first four points of the third quarter to extend their lead to 30-21. Oregon State chipped away, finally going in front 41-40 on Pivec's layin.

McWilliams' 3-pointer from the left corner at the buzzer put the Beavers up 46-44 entering the final period.

Arizona State hit four of its first six shots en route to an early 10-2 lead. Oregon State countered with a 14-2 run, going in front 16-12 on Pivec's layup with 6:59 left in the half.

Kat Tudor converted a three-point play to put the Beavers up 21-18 with 2:06 left, but the Sun Devils scored the final eight points of the half.

STATS Oregon State made 10 of 14 shots in a 25-point third quarter, including 5 of 6 beyond the arc.

UP NEXT Arizona State: The Sun Devils face No. 16 Stanford in the tournament semifinals Saturday night.

Oregon State: The Beavers are awaiting an NCAA bid.

Rams trade pass rusher Robert Quinn to Miami

MIAMI (AP) — A person familiar with the agreement says the Miami Dolphins have agreed to acquire Los Angeles Rams defensive end Robert Quinn for a mid-round draft pick. The person confirmed the deal to The Associated Press on condition of anonymity Friday because under NFL rules, no 2018 trades can be completed until March 14.

Quinn has 62 career sacks, including 8 last year, when he started 14 games. He has spent his entire seven-year career with the Rams.

Quinn is expected to bolster a Miami pass rush that was disappointing last season. The Dolphins' other defensive ends include 36-year-old Cameron Wake, Andre Branch and 2017 first-round draft pick Charles Harris.

quality possessions than they deserved tonight. You turn it over, every coach in America will tell you that you lessen your opportunity to win."

Pendleton began the game playing well, leading for all but three seconds of the first quarter until Crescent Valley's Ana McClave's floater at the buzzer put the Raiders in front 15-14 after one. After the teams tied at 28-28 at halftime, Crescent Valley's Cali McClave knocked in a pair of 3-pointers to spark an 8-0 run for the Raiders for a 36-28 lead.

The Buckaroos battled back and tied the game at 38-38 and then eventually grabbed a 44-40 lead on lay-ins from McGlothlin and Davies with 3:00 left in the third. Then it was the Raiders turn again for a scoring spurt, taking a 47-44 lead at the end of the third quarter.

And again, the Buckaroos came back and tied the game at 51-51 with 3:15 left after Lemberger drained a 3-pointer from the right wing. But then the turnovers haunted the Buckaroos on five possessions down the stretch to allow Crescent Valley to steal the win.

Cali McClave led the Raiders with a game-high 26 points as she was nearly unstoppable all night. She routinely was able to dribble past Buckaroo on-ball defenders for easy layups and knocked down jump shots when open. And overall, Crescent Valley worked through Pendleton's defenses with constant backdoor cuts and slip screens which the Buckaroos just couldn't find a way to stop.

"We knew what they (Crescent Valley) was going to do and we didn't do a very good job at stopping it," Porter said.

And because of that, the Raiders are the ones that will be making the trip to Gill within reach of the Foxes (20-5), and trailed just 15-14 after the first half. But shooting was sparse in the third and fourth quarters, as the Bulldogs (12-14) were held to only 10 points while Silverton knocked down 25.

Coliseum next week while the Buckaroo players will turn their attention to spring sports.

BOYS BASKETBALL

IRRIGON 58, HORIZON CHRISTIAN 50 — At North Bend, the Irrigon Knights will have the chance to play for fourth place in Class 3A on Saturday after Friday's 58-50 win over Horizon Christian in the 3A consolation round at North Bend High School.

Johnny Phillips led the Knights (22-5) with 18 points and nine rebounds and Adrian Roa finished with 13 points and five assists. Lino Covarubia knocked down a pair of key 3-pointers and had nine points for the game.

Anthony Sprauer led Horizon Christian (19-10) with a game-high 24 points.

The Knights led 12-10 after the first quarter, but used a pair of 20-point outputs in the second and fourth quarters to take the victory.

Irrigon will play Cascade Christian (19-10) at 9:45 a.m. at Marshfield High School in Coos Bay for fourth place.

HOSANNA CHRISTIAN 64, NIXYAAWII 50 — At Baker City, the Nixyaawii Golden Eagles' season came to a disappointing end with a loss in the consolation round to Hosanna Christian on Friday morning.

The Golden Eagles (24-5) got into an early 23-10 hole at the end of the first quarter that simply proved to be too big to climb out of. Though, they did outscore Hosanna Christian 27-21 in the second half.

Deven Barkley led Nixyaawii with 20 points and Mick Schimmel had 19 points. Waylan Cole led Hosanna Christian (25-4) with 17 points.

CRATER 51, HERMISTON 43 — After a long trip southwest, the Hermiston Bulldogs had their work cut out for them against No. 2 seeded Crater.

The Comets held nearly a 10-point lead heading into halftime. After the break, steady defense from the Bulldogs allowed time for their offense to find shots, and Hermiston was able to pull within three points with three minutes of play left.

But during their following three possessions, the Bulldogs turned the ball over and Crater was able to pull away with a 51-43 victory.

The Bulldogs (12-12) needed shots along the perimeter, which had never been a problem until Friday night. Reliable long-distance shooter Cesar Ortiz knocked down just three 3-pointers, two of which were in the high scoring second quarter.

Ryne Andreason, who has also been known for knocking down three's, didn't hit a single shot from outside but still led the team with 10 points.

For the Comets, Mason Vranes led with 19 points.
