

HEPPNER

Celebration features more than a wee bit o’ fun

Saturday packed with activities

By TAMMY MALGESINI
East Oregonian

Organizers are painting the town green as Heppner gears up for the 36th annual A Wee Bit O’Ireland Celebration.

The event kicks off Thursday with a vendor’s square (9:30-5:30 p.m.) and a drama performance (7 p.m.) written and directed by Father Gerry Condon. “Searching For Meaning” is free but donations will be accepted on behalf of “Anson Strong,” which benefits the family of Anson Fairbank, a local 2-year-old who is undergoing treatment for leukemia.

Musical entertainment, food and fun will be aplenty as residents and visitors celebrate the town’s Irish heritage. Joe and Leanne Lindsay, their children, Ryan, Cori Jo and Andrew, and other extended family members will serve as grand marshals during the Great Green Parade (Saturday, 1 p.m.).

“They are so good,” said Sheryll Bates, Heppner Chamber of Commerce executive director. “Whatever we ask, Joe and Leanne are right there to help out.”

Bates said the family always pitches in to assist with community events. Joe performs light-hearted and fun songs, which he writes each year to honor the event grand marshals. The Lindsay kids, Bates said, have grown up learning a spirit of participation. She is particularly looking forward to hearing this year’s grand marshal song — hoping for more of the good-natured humor Joe is known for.

New to this year’s event is Murray’s Irish Beer and Wine Fest. The event kicks off Friday at 8 p.m. at the Morrow County Fairgrounds and features Dan Burns 3D Productions — an electrifying live DJ show complete with music, lights, fog and more. Admission is free. Food and drinks will be available for purchase.

The Irish Coffee Hour (Saturday, 10 a.m.), which is actually 90 minutes in length, continues to be a highlight of the weekend event, Bates said. It features music, an Irish Brogue Contest, a chance to win cash prizes and running commentary between host Tom Melton, Father Gerry Condon, U.S. Rep. Greg Walden and local attorney Bill Kuhn. Although new to the coffee hour gang, Kuhn is known for his corny jokes. He is assuming the seat previously reserved for Dominic Monahan, a retired attorney.

Bates is excited about the revival of the O’Planky Race (Saturday, 11:30 a.m.), which returned last year to Shamrock Central after nearly a 20-year hiatus. Also, the Welly Toss (Saturday, 10 a.m. to 12:30 p.m.), which features launching Wellington boots, offers a chance to participate in ol’ Irish fun and braggin’ rights for the longest throws. And kid’s activities will be plentiful during Top O’The Hour (Saturday, 10 a.m. to 3 p.m.)

Bates said the late morning activities, which also includes the Cruz-In (Saturday, 10 a.m. to 3 p.m.) encourages people to linger downtown while waiting for the parade to begin. Also, for those feeling energized, the Leprechaun Run dashes in at 11:15 a.m.

Also, in an effort to increase involvement before participants imbibe in too much green beer, the Road Bowling will take place Saturday at 3 p.m. Be sure to gather your lads and lassies for a team of four and get signed up at 1 p.m.

The event also includes musical performances, sheep dog trials, the Cruz-In car show, meals, vendor displays, Ewe-Do-Bingo, the O’Ducky Race, children’s talent show and the Friends of the Library annual book sale. Also, don’t forget to fork out some dough for a collector’s button, which provides two chances to win a $100 pot o’ gold. The drawings will be held Saturday at CEILI (2-4 p.m.) and during the CrossStrung performance (7:30-9:30 p.m.).

“We try to have something for everybody, so it’s not just the coffee hour and the parade and then everyone drinks beer,” Bates said. “It’s just a lot of fun.”
