SAY IT AGAIN, THIS TIME WITH FEELINGS!

with Colleen Blackwood
THURSDAYS, 6:00 - 8:30 PM
APRIL 5TH, MAY 3RD, & JUNE 7TH

In this 3-part series, we will make fabric collage postcards that reflect original expressions, can be mailed, and are suitable for framing. Turn a sentimental greeting card into a long-lasting expression that is uniquely yours and meant for exactly the person intended. Each month will feature a different theme and creative prompts and ideas to get you started. Designs can be sewn or fused together, then stitched if desired onto a base. There is no limit to what kind of art to apply; paints and markers, stitches, beads, and more. All materials will be provided in class. Join us for one class or come to all three!

JEWELRY MAKING: THE BASICS

with Jean Reiher
THURSDAYS, 6:00 – 7:30 PM
MAY 3RD – MAY 24TH
(4 SESSIONS)

Be able to say, "I made it myself" next time someone compliments you on your jewelry. Jean will give you the tools you need to get started on creating your own jewelry. You can even bring in that favorite broken necklace or bracelet you haven't let go of yet and make it new again! Students will learn about proper jewelry making materials and techniques including wire loops, bead stringing, and more. You will have the opportunity to create one or more beautiful pieces of jewelry such as earrings, bracelets, and necklaces. Bring your own beads, broken jewelry to remake, or chose from the Arts Center collection.
