A visitor views entires during a past Open Regional Photography Exhibit at Pendleton Center for the Arts. Submissions for this year's event will be accepted Saturday, May 5 from noon to 4 p.m.

East Oregonian

For more than 40 years, the Arts Council of Pendleton has invited artists from the region to exhibit their artwork for the community to enjoy.

The idea is to come together to celebrate the act of artistic creation and learn more about the art-making process. People are encouraged to begin the process of selecting submissions for the upcoming Open Regional Photography Exhibition.

Submissions for the exhibit is open to all adult amateur and professional artists who live in Eastern Oregon or southeastern Washington. In addition, there is a Teen Category for artists who are 13-17 years old. All submitted work must have been completed in the last five years.

While a wide range of expressive creativity supported, the Open Regional Exhibit is designed as a family-friendly event. Those planning to submit entires are asked to keep in mind that work deemed inappropriate for viewing by young children by the exhibition committee may not be included.

The drop-off date for submissions is Saturday, May 5 between noon and 4 p.m. at Pendleton Center for the Arts, 214 N. Main St. Arrangements for other times may be made by contacting arts center staff. No shipped or mailed artwork will be accepted. There is an entry fee of $10 per work for adults and $5 each for teens. Artists may enter up to two digital or traditional darkroom photographs.

The sale of work is encouraged but not required. A 30 percent commission will be deducted from all sales. If an artist's work is not for sale, a dollar value must still be entered on the label for insurance purposes.

The show's judge will award up to $1,000 in prize money in the adult and youth categories, thanks to support from Banner Bank of Pendleton. The $200 Jacqueline Brown People's Choice Award will be presented based on votes of visitors to the exhibit, thanks to the generosity of the Picken/Brown family.

The judge is Michael Sell. who has a bachelor's degree in studio art from Adrian College and a mater's degree in photography from Kendall College of Art and Design. He has made presentations at numerous conferences and his photography has been exhibited throughout the Pacific Northwest and beyond.

The exhibit opens Thursday, May 10 with a judge's critique at 5 p.m. The opening reception follows from 5:30-7 p.m. Both events, which are at the arts center, are open to the public. The exhibit runs through Friday, June 29.

For more information about submissions, including labels that can be printed, visit www. pendletonarts.org. For questions, call 541-278-9201.

PHS seeks employers for Career Day event

PENDLETON — Pendleton High School will continue its long tradition of hosting a school-wide day to focus on what happens after high school and the world of work.

The April 11 event will host dozens of community business owners and leaders to talk about their industry and how to prepare for entering the workforce. The day will also include a Job Fair in the Gold Gym where regional employers will promote summer employment, internships, or provide an introduction to what their field is all about.

Employers interested in having a presence on April 11 to connect with students and teachers can contact Susan Bower by email at susanbower@ eobusinesssource.com or by phone at 541-215-9252. There is no cost to participate; however, advance registration no later than Thursday, April 5 is required.

St. Patrick's event focus of community meeting

HEPPNER — The St. Patrick's Committee will hold a community meeting Wednesday, April 4 at 6 p.m. at the Heppner City Hall conference room to review the events and activities of this year and start planning for next year.

All community members that have expressed an interest in volunteering and helping to plan 2019 event are encouraged to attend. Pizza and beverage will be served. Attendees are asked to RSVP no later that Tuesday, April 3 to the Heppner Chamber at 541-676-5536 or heppnerchamber@centurytel.net to accommodate food and seating.

Umatilla to hold spring cleanup event

UMATILLA — The annual Community Clean Up Week begins Saturday, April 7 at 9 a.m., and residents of Umatilla are encouraged to tidy up their property and help neighbors with spring outdoor cleaning.

McNary area volunteers can meet at the Port of Umatilla offices, 500 Willamette St., and downtown and south hill volunteers should meet at Umatilla City Hall, 700 Sixth St. Dumpsters also will be placed around the community free of charge for disposal of yard waste, junk, debris and general garbage.

All volunteers will be treated to a barbecue lunch at noon at Village Square Park, next to the Umatilla Public Library, 700 Sixth St. For more information, call 541-922-3226.
