different type of excitement. It was my son looking into my eyes. It was different," Lillard said Friday.

But his joy was tempered because his halfbrother was shot multiple times in the parking lot of a Portland-area shopping mall on Thursday night. Lillard said 20-year-old Jahrell Lillard was in stable condition. Police continue to look for the suspects.

The Clippers were short-handed. The team announced that Milos Teodosic has a torn plantar fascia in his left foot and will be re-evaluated in two weeks. Already missing Avery Bradley were (abdominal surgery) and Patrick Beverley (knee).

But the Clippers saw the return of Danilo Gallinari, who had missed 18 games with a fractured right hand. Gallinari finished with 11 points.

The first half was a highlight reel of dunks for the Blazers, who led 64-49 at the break. Collins had three dunks in the second quarter to finish the first half with 13 points, topping his career high for a game.

The Blazers had 17 assists in the first half, led by Lillard with five.

Al-Farouq Aminu's layup and free throw put Portland up 74-51 early in the second half. But Davis headed to the locker room later in the third quarter.

Portland was already playing without starter Maurice Harkless, who had a minor procedure on his left knee on Wednesday and will be re-evaluated in two weeks.

Earls, however, could not quite carry that performance over into the second game of the day. She got the start against Rainier and allowed 12 hits, 11 runs (six earned) and walked five in  $3 \frac{1}{3}$ innings, while only throwing 50 percent strikes.

In the first inning, the Columbians (4-2) loaded the bases against Earls with two singles and walk, but Earls escaped with back-to-back strikeouts. It seemed to be a momentum swing for the Pioneers, as their offense exploded for six runs in the bottom half of the first. It got started with a two-run home run to left-center field off the bat of Graci Bullock and then an RBI single by Brittany Wells and a RBI double from Earls gave the Pioneers a 6-0 lead.

Though the Columbians finally broke through against Earls over the next two innings as they pushed across nine unanswered runs to take a 9-6 lead — one that would hold until the sixth inning.

The Pioneers got two runs back on a two-run double to centerfield by Courtney Cain in the bottom of the sixth to make it 9-8, and then had the tying and go-ahead runs on base before Potts' pop out stranded the runners.

But in the seventh, the Pioneers' pitching and defense let them down again. Mac-Hi committed two errors and Rainier smacked five hits in the inning to push across seven runs to make it a 16-8 game.

The Pioneers would make one last big push in the seventh. A fielder's choice groundout by Lyon brought in a run and then a basesloaded walk by Bullock and a RBI double by Kelly cut the deficit to 16-11. Three batters later, Potts drew another bases-loaded walk to make it a 16-12 game. And with the tying run at home plate in McKenna Yensen with two outs, Yensen grounded out to shortstop for the final out, sealing the win for Rainier.

The Pioneers recorded 20 hits in the game and stranded 10 runners. Lyon had the best day, going 4-for-5 with three runs and two RBI, while Kelly was 3-for-4 with a run and an RBI. Earls and Kiley Reichert each had two hits in the game as well.

Rainier's Aspen Norman, Paige Kellar and Reese Schimmel — 1-2-3 in the batting order — did most of the damage for the Columbians. The trio combined to go 9-for-20 (.450) with two doubles, seven runs scored and eight RBI.

Mac-Hi continues its tournament on Saturday with a pair of games. The Pioneers first play Junction City at 2 p.m. and then face Yamhill-Carlton at 4 p.m., both at Yantis Park.

responded with a five-run inning in the fourth.

Monique Montoya hit a grounder up the middle, and safely reached base on a error. The two-RBI scored Hart and Alex Putnam. Weems scored another run for the Cougars, and finished

To cap off the scoring, Kennedy's Tressa Reidman walked Alyssa Ray with the bases already loaded for Echo's final run of the inning.

But that 7-6 lead wouldn't last long, as the Trojans scored eight more runs in the fourth and fifth innings to reach 14 on the day. The Cougars would highlighted by a two-RBI Echo after six innings in the circle. Ray allowed 14 runs on 11 hits and struck out six batters.
