Officer shoots suspect in Medford

MEDFORD (AP) — A Medford police officer shot and wounded a suspect who authorities say was armed with a rifle.

Oregon State Police Lt. Mark Duncan says officers responded Thursday to a report that 41-year-old William Shelton was menacing with a firearm at a home that included children.

A SWAT team and hostage negotiators arrived when Shelton wouldn't leave the home.

Duncan says Shelton eventually came outside, firing several shots from a rifle. A Medford police officer then fired a round that hit Shelton in the upper chest.

He is expected to survive.

Wrong-way driver critically injured in I-5 crash

SALEM (AP) — Oregon State Police say a driver was critically injured in a wrong-way crash on Interstate 5 near Lake Oswego, and a second motorist was arrested for driving the wrong way on the freeway in Salem.

The agency says 25-year-old Sydney Lopez Martinez of Cornelius was traveling southbound in the northbound lanes early Friday when she hit the side of one semi and collided with another. She was flown to OHSU Hospital.

PUBLIC SAFETY LOG

THURSDAY

6:08 a.m. - Murphy B. Andrews, 27, of Milton-Freewater, suffered injuries when he struck an elk while driving.

Oregon State Police reported Andrews was heading south in a Nissan Sentry when he crashed into the elk near milepost 21 Highway 11. An ambulance took Murphy to a local hospital due to his injuries. State police did not report the extent of his injuries.

9:49 a.m. - Residents on Elizabeth Street, Milton-Freewater, reported they were the victims of criminal behavior.

3:47 p.m. - Elizabeth Ann Schulte, 51, of Heppner, crashed on Highway 74 and suffered injuries, according to Oregon State Police.

Schulte was traveling east in a Chevrolet Cavalier when it left the road near milepost 38, state police reported, and she over-corrected. The car fishtailed before spinning clockwise off the road and down the shoulder of the eastbound lane, where it rolled to the bottom of the slope.

a check on the driver, Jacob McClain Gonsalves, 34, of Pendleton, and found he was violation of his probation conditions. Police gave the passenger a ride to a local home, released Gonsalves and sent a message to the probation officer.

11:41 p.m. - Umatilla police received a 911 report from a caller on Devore Road near McNary Dam of someone possibly shooting a machine gun.

ARRESTS, CITATIONS

Pendleton police arrested Michael Thomas Hall, 30, of Pendleton, on a warrant for failure to appear in a drug case and on new charges of felony possession of meth, resisting arrest, interfering with a peace officer and third-degree escape.

A car crash in downtown Pendleton led to an arrest for an intoxicated driver.

The wreck occurred about 9:15 p.m. on Southeast Dorion Avenue at First Street. Pendleton police reported officers arrived and they found a car legally parked on the south side of the roadway that was damaged and another car on its driver's side in the lanes of travel.

The driver and only occupant of the second car was Elfrina Lubrin, 42, of Pendleton. She was heading east, according to police, when she struck the unoccupied parked car, causing her car to turn onto its side.

Pendleton emergency medics treated Lubrin at the scene, then officers arrested her for driving under the influence of intoxicants and reckless driving.
