EMS personnel at the scene later discovered that 51-year-old Denis Kay Ward, also of La Grande, who was sitting in the back seat of the vehicle when contacted by OSP, had been the driver when the accident occurred, and was possibly under the influence of a controlled substance. Both the woman and three juveniles who were in the vehicle were transported to St. Anthony Hospital for evaluation. The vehicle, which had hit two fog markers during the accident, was towed.

Chloe Rae Hoisington

Portland
March 22, 2018- March 26, 2018

On March 22, 2018, Thursday at 5:27 p.m., desiring parents Sammantha White and Derek Hoisington gave birth to a beautiful baby girl, Chloe Rae Hoisington.

Hoisington

Chloe was born weighing 1lb 2oz, and with her dad's great height at 11.25 inches long. Chloe showed signs of having her mother's adamancy while pulling her temperature monitor off again and again.

On Monday, March 26, Chloe was faced with an unfortunate challenge that she could not overcome. Our little fairy was called to the Lord, and with loved ones all around she left this Earth. During that fleeting time, she touched many lives and was loved by all who met her. Chloe experienced the smell of mommy and daddy, the often loud "aws" from her family, and being told "I love you" an uncountable amount of times.

"Sometimes the smallest things take up the most room in your heart." - A.A. Milne

Chloe is deeply loved by her mother and father, grandparents, uncles and aunts, her cousins and many others. Chloe will always remain her parents' precious baby, and they will hold her again in heaven one day.

A memorial service will be held for family and close friends to honor Chloe's memory. In lieu of flowers, donations to the NICU at Randall Children's Hospital in Portland, Oregon, would be appreciated.

Donations to the family to help with medical expenses would also be appreciated and can be made to the campaign "Our Little Angel Chloe Rae" at gofundme.com.
