

OBITUARIES

Shirley Alice Peterson

Pendleton
April 22, 1921 - March 30, 2018

Shirley Alice Peterson passed away Friday, March 30, 2018, in Pendleton, Oregon.

A graveside service will be held Thursday, April 5, at 2 p.m., at Mountain View Cemetery in Walla Walla, Wash., and a memorial service will be held April 21, 2 p.m., at the First Christian Church in Pendleton, Ore.

Shirley was born in Pendleton in 1921 to Mathias and Lydia (Taskinen) Deining, and was raised in the Greasewood area near Helix, Oregon. She attended school in Helix, and graduated from Griswold High school in 1939.

In 1941 she married Frederick Arnold Peterson, and they made their home on the family farm in Helix where they raised their two sons, John and Tom. Shirley and Arnold had been married 56 years at his passing, Sept. 12, 1998.

Shirley was an active part of her community, being involved in the Greasewood Finnish Heritage Society, JC Club, TAT, and was a member of Eastern Star. She was a member of First Christian Church, and Christian Women's Fellowship.

She enjoyed gardening, baking, and most of all traveling to watch the grandchildren and great-grandchildren at their various dance and sporting activities.

Shirley was preceded in death by her husband, Arnold, and sisters Violet Wolpert, Thelma Herrala, Marie Elizabeth "Betty" Parent and Lorna Catherine Deining.

She is survived by her sons John Deining Peterson (Linda) and Thomas Arnold Peterson (Jackie); two sisters, Laurel Phillips and Elaine Altmanns; three granddaughters, Jennifer Ericson (Scott), Jill Crook (Jaymi) and Suzette Morales (Matt); and three great-grandchildren, Kelley and Reese Ericson, and Adrian Morales.

In lieu of flowers, the family suggests donations to the Helix Booster Club, the Greasewood Finnish Heritage Society, or Umatilla County Historical Society.

Robert (Bob) Jack Kasari

Fort Collins, Colo.
Aug. 27, 1922 - April 2, 2018

Robert (Bob) Jack Kasari was born August 27, 1922, in Reedley, California, to Jacob B. and Jennie Sakrison Kasari. The family moved to Umatilla County when Bob was 8 months old. He graduated from Stanfield High School in 1941.

He joined the United States Navy in June of 1942 and served until February of 1946 when he was honorably discharged as a yeoman second class. He served his entire naval time in the South Pacific. He was on the submarine USS Searaven and then the aircraft carrier USS Sitkoh Bay.

Bob married Mildred Pomeroy December 11, 1949. He always wanted to farm and had purchased 56 acres in Columbia District east of Hermiston, Oregon. At the time of his marriage he was working in construction on McNary Dam on the Columbia River. He sold the farm and the family moved to Idaho for 10 months, finally settling on a farm on Buttercreek where the Kasari family grew to include two girls and two boys. He also bought a pasture farm at Nolan.

Bob worked hard farming and was Umatilla County Soil Conservation Man of the year in 1961. He would haul shavings to the feedlots and bale straw in the summer time to sell to provide for his growing family. His family was so precious to him and he so enjoyed their school activities. He was a 4-H leader as he helped kids interested in livestock. Eventually the family sold their Echo property and moved to Stanfield.

Bob bought the Zivney Farm Supply in 1973. He operated Kasari Farm Supply until his retirement in 1990. He enjoyed his customers and the friends he made.

As Bob's health started declining he moved to Fort Collins, Colorado, in March of 2014 to be closer to family. He entered a dementia unit October 30, 2017, and passed away five months later on April 2, 2018.

Bob is survived by his wife Mildred, his daughter Kay DeLeon (Rickey), his son Tom (Ellen), daughter Connie Kasari (Jim) and son Brent (Heather). He loved his six grandchildren, RJ and Jacob DeLeon, Caitlin and Jack McCracken, and Matthew and Megan Kasari. He is also very proud of his six great-grandchildren. If his life could be summarized in a few words, it would be he was a wonderful son, husband, parent and all-round caring family man.

Bob is the last of his Kasari generation. He was predeceased by his parents, brothers George and William, and sisters Jeannette and Eleanor. He is also the final member of his seven classmates of Stanfield High, class of 1941.

In lieu of flowers, those who wish may make a contribution to the Alzheimer's Association.

A funeral service will be held on Saturday, April 14, 2018, at 11 a.m. at Burns Mortuary chapel, Hermiston, Oregon. Burial will follow at Pleasant View Cemetery, Stanfield, Oregon.

Wesley Lee All

Pendleton
July 13, 1944 - April 1, 2018

Wesley All (Wes) was born July 13, 1944, in Lamar, Colorado, the son of John Dennis and Laura Olivia All. He died on Sunday, April 1, 2018, in Pendleton, Oregon, at the age of 73.

Wes served in the Navy on the U.S.S. Caliente from August 1961 to August 1965, and spent an additional four years in the Navy Seabees from August 1965 to August 1969, and was honorably discharged with eight years of Navy service.

Wes married Sandra Louise Shepard in January 1965. They had two sons: Patrick Christopher All, who passed away as an infant at a few days old; and a second son, James Lee All. Wes later married Nancy Carol Gammon on February 15, 1974, in Vancouver, Washington. Wes and Nancy had two children: Bonnie Elizabeth All and John Wesley All.

Wes completed high school while in the Navy. He later went for two terms to Walla Walla University. While married to Nancy, they moved from Portland to Milton-Freewater, Oregon, and later moved to Pendleton, Oregon, because of a job opportunity.

Wes worked at several jobs after discharge from the Navy. In 1973 he began truck driving for a window manufacturing firm in Portland, Oregon, driving an 18-wheeler to California, Oregon and Washington. Wes worked for Harris Pine Mills in Pendleton as a log truck driver for several years. In 1989 he began his own business as log truck owner-operator with his home base in Pendleton. Wes retired from truck driving in 1999 due to ill health.

Subsequently he began volunteer driving for the Oregon Department of Human Services in 2000 taking clients to doctor appointments in Portland, Spokane, Tri-Cities and Bend. Wes officially retired again in 2011.

Wes is survived by his wife of 44 years, Nancy All; sons James Lee All (age 47) and John Wesley All (37); daughter Bonnie Elizabeth All (39); grandsons Christopher All (19), Jack All (12), Wesley James All (13) and Jacob All (9); brother Ralph Leon All; sister Sandra Denise Lewis; and cousins, nephews and nieces.

Wes was preceded in death by his parents, John and Olivia All; a sister, Vera Mokshefski; and both sets of grandparents.

Wes enjoyed hunting, fishing and camping. He was a lifetime member of the Gold Prospectors Association of America since 2007. Wes was proud of his eight years in the Navy and always claimed his military service helped him navigate life in many ways. Wes always had a drive to do more, become more skillful, make a better living for his family that he was proud of and loved. He was a member of the American Legion for many years, and a member of the Veterans of Foreign Wars. Wes was baptized into the Seventh-day Adventist Church in 1975, and his faith in God was strong. Wes taught Sabbath School as a member of the Pilot Rock SDA Church many years ago, and always considered Sabbath School his favorite part of church attendance.

There will be a funeral to honor Wesley on April 18, 2018, at 11 a.m. at the Pendleton Seventh-day Adventist Church, 1401 S.W. Goodwin Place, Pendleton, Ore. All Wes' relatives, friends and neighbors are welcome to attend. Interment will be in Olney Cemetery thereafter.

HUMBOLDT, Saskatchewan — Families and friends already stunned by the deaths of 15 players and team personnel for Humboldt's youth hockey club got a new shock Monday when authorities announced that one of the dead had been misidentified.

The Ministry of Justice for Saskatchewan province said the mistake occurred partly because all the Broncos players had dyed their hair blond for the team's appearance in the playoffs and because all the young men had similar builds.

The ministry said the body of Parker Tobin had been mistakenly identified as that of Xavier Labelle. It said Labelle was actually one of the 14 injured when the team bus was hit by a semitrailer truck Friday night.

Drew Wilby, spokesman for the ministry, Wilby and the Office of the Chief Coroner apologized.

"To find who they had thought was their loved one wasn't their loved one I can't even fathom," Wilby said. "I don't know enough could ever be said. All I could do is offer our sincerest apologies."

He said families had been involved in identifying the remains of the crash victims at a makeshift morgue and the error wasn't discovered until Sunday night.

"The new information came to light last night that raised questions with the health care professionals. In turn they were able to identify Xavier Labelle as Xavier Labelle, who of course we had previously said was Parker Tobin," Wilby said. "A lot of these boys looked alike."

Over the weekend, Tobin's family had tweeted that their son was alive.

"This is one of the hardest posts I have ever had to make. Parker is stable at the moment and being airlifted to Saskatoon hospital," Rhonda Clarke Tobin wrote.

Meanwhile, Xavier Labelle's family had confirmed his death, with his brother Isaac writing in an Instagram post that he was heartbroken.

"All I can say is miracles do exist. My deepest condolences to the Tobin family," Isaac Labelle posted on Facebook on Monday. Matthew Labelle, a second cousin of Xavier, said that "it's obviously been quite the roller coaster for our family."
