

TENNIS: Dual on Saturday

weather, and after having an advantage over Capital's top duo lost their outing, 7-5, 1-6, 6-10.

Multiple times McCullough's forehead was a little too much when his back was to the wind, and the ball sailed over the back court giving the Golden Eagles something to build off of. At the net, Wicks kept a couple of rallies alive in the second set but it wasn't enough to keep Capital at bay.

"It's one of those learning curve matches," West said. "The boys have to learn how to play against different styles."

Amidst the conditions and the spurts of good play, Hermiston saw a consistent effort from a singles player and one doubles pair, who earned the only two wins for the team.

Hayden Cissna handily defeated his opponent 6-0, 6-1 and Trent Pitney and Josue Cadenas — the No. 3 doubles group — won their match in a tiebreaker, 3-6, 10-5, 6-2.

Pitney and Cadenas are 3-for-3 on the week after winning matches against Hood River on Tuesday and The Dalles on Wednesday.

Jaiden Ruloph rounded out singles as the No. 3 player and lost his match, 0-6, 4-6. In doubles, Austin Garcia and Matt Eckhardt finished out the day and dropped their game 4-6, 2-6. In a bout of frustration as play was wrapping up, Eckhardt begged the wind to stop in between points, but it never let up.

Back at Hermiston High, the girls team wasn't able to play a full match as Capital only brought five players to face the Bulldogs, and despite their best efforts, Hermiston fell 4-2.

The wins came in singles where No. 4 singles player Breckyn Mecham won, 6-0, 6-0, and in doubles with the

No. 1 duo of Reed Middleton and Breana Wadekamper. The Bulldog pair won 6-6 (10-7), 2-6, 10-8.

"Reed and Breana played a very good match," head coach Jason Sivey said. "They did very well in tiebreakers, but overall played some of the best tennis I've seen this year. They were very strong at the net and played more aggressively. It was a tough fought battle and they came out on top."

Sivey went on to add that the team didn't see the results they wanted too in on the other courts.

Hermiston's Mackenzie Hill was up against Capital's No. 1 singles player and could barely get a set point in against the tough competition. Hill ended up dropping her match 0-6, 1-6.

Both Adriann Stewart and Lindsay McAllister lost their matches. Stewart dropped hers 0-6, 1-6, and McAllister was the final Bulldog on the court and lost in a tiebreaker, 5-5, 5-10.

Due to time constraints that cut McAllister's tiebreaker at 5-5 to finish things off, Mecham and Alyssa Perkins' doubles match was a pro-set, and the first to eight was the Golden Eagle duo.

UP NEXT

Hermiston will return to the court Saturday when the Bulldogs host Eisenhower for an afternoon dual at Hermiston High beginning at 12 p.m.

COLLEGE: Robles struck out four for Treasure Valley of victories over Northwest on April 6-7.

• Rayne Spencer (Pendleton), Eastern Oregon softball — In a weekend series against Northwest, Spencer picked up three hits with one home run and four RBI, while also scoring four runs.

• Allie Rude (Hermiston), Whitworth softball — Starting at catcher for the Pirates, Rude tallied four hits with a double, an RBI and a run scored in a four-game, weekend sweep of Lewis & Clark.

• Nychal Gritz (Hermiston), Blue Mountain CC baseball — Even though he was handed the loss, Gritz threw eight innings and struck out five batters in a 4-3 loss to Walla Walla. Gritz now has a 4-1 record with a 3.37 ERA in seven starts.

• Dylan Grogan (Stanfield), Yakima Valley College baseball — Grogan threw a combined two scoreless innings of relief against Treasure Valley and Columbia Basin, where he struck out four and walked only two. In doing so, Grogan lowered his season ERA to a solid 2.45.

• Roy Robles (Hermiston), Treasure Valley baseball — In two starts against Walla Walla and Blue Mountain, Robles pitched six innings and struck out four while allowing only three earned runs.

• Reilly Hegarty (Pendleton), Whitworth men's golf — Hegarty shot a 36-hole score of 148 (+4) to finish tied for third place at the NWC Spring Classic at Hangman Valley Golf Course in Spokane, Washington on April 8.

• Blake Greenup (Heppner), Lewis Clark State women's golf — Finished tied for third place at the Bigfoot Invitational in Spokane, Washington with an 11-over par 157, helping her Lewis Clark State team to a first place finish.

• Devin Hasher (Pilot Rock), Mt. Hood CC track & field — At the John Knight Twilight on April 6, Hasher turned in a season-best 1.85 meters in the high jump to finish third.

• Delaney Clem (Pendleton), Central Washington track & field — The sophomore finished third in the women's 10K run with a time of 48:42.87 at the WAR XI meet in Spokane, Washington on April 7.

• Ebony Wilson (Hermiston), Eastern Oregon track & field — Wilson had a busy day at the WAR XI meet in Spokane, Washington on April 7, finishing fourth in long jump (16-09.75), ninth in triple jump (33-11.25). She was also part of the 4x100 relay team that finished third place.
