PUBLIC SAFETY LOG

WEDNESDAY

•Stanfield police during the day visited the Stanfield Secondary School and awarded five students with Anti-Bullying Awards. Their classmates selected the five for taking steps to stop bullying at the school.

7:49 a.m. - Someone vandalized the restroom at Yantis Park. Milton-Freewater.

8:08 a.m. - Hermiston police responded to a burglary on the 500 block of East Gladys Avenue.

12:13 p.m. - The Irrigon city manager reported residents at 490 S.E. Utah Ave. are violating city codes because they have 12 goats, including a ram. The Morrow County Sheriff's Office responded and gave the residents a copy of the city code. 2:17 p.m. - A Pendleton resident reported giving away $200 in a scam. 6:12 p.m. - Pendleton residents on Northeast 35th Street reported the neighbor is throwing poisonous foods into the pasture, so far killing two dogs and one goat, and two cows are 7:37 p.m. - Pendleton Public Library staff called for police to deal with a man "swearing and cursing" in the lobby of the library.

10:25 p.m. - A man asked the Umatilla County Sheriff's Office to check on the welfare of a woman at Highway 339 and West Ferndale Road, Milton-Freewater, The caller said she asked him for a ride during the rain storm, and he tried to help her, but she acted strangely, said it was too hot in the car and got out.

ARRESTS, CITATIONS

•Boardman police arrested James David Mitchell Town, 25, of Boardman, for violating a restraining order, second-degree trespass and first-degree burglary.

Oregon State Police at about 5:30 p.m. responded to Columbia Outdoor Sports & Surplus, 395 E. Main St., Hermiston, for a denial of a gun purchase.

State police reported a trooper found Reinhard Colin Fraunfelder, 34, of Hermiston, tried to buy a gun. However, police arrested him March 12 for driving under the influence of intoxicants (controlled substances).

And Hermiston Municipal Court in 2010 suspended Fraunfelder's license for a drug conviction.

Fraunfelder did not get a gun, but he did get citations for providing false information in connection with the transfer of a firearm, unlawful purchase of a firearm and false swearing.

age of 79.

Dean lived in Ashland throughout his childhood and he graduated from Ashland High School in 1957. After high school, he attended Southern Oregon University in Ashland, where he met and married his first wife Maxine Vance in 1961. They moved to Salem, where Dean earned his bachelor's degree in music from Willamette University.

After moving to Lebanon, Dean began his teaching career at Lebanon Junior High School. He earned his master's degree in education from Oregon State University. Dean had a passion for music and he founded the Lebanon Community Chorus in 1967. He was a member of the United Methodist Church in Lebanon where he directed the choir and hand bells.

Dean later taught in Astoria, where he met and married his second wife Judi Dearman in 1991. He went on to teach in Klamath Falls > before finishing his career in Hermiston. He retired in 1996, and he continued as a substitute teacher for 18 years.

Dean was member of the United Methodist Church in Hermiston where he directed the choir and hand bells. He participated in the Inland Northwest Orchestra and Chorale for many years. He also enjoyed painting houses and woodworking.

He is survived by his wife Judi of Hermiston; son Michael Mason of Tualatin; daughter Debbi McMahon (Jay) and sons Patrick and Garrett, all of Bend; sister Marilee Titus of Tacoma, Wash.; and brother David Wesley Mason (Christina) of Lakeview.
