SUNDAY

1:25 a.m. - Boardman police responded to a report of a burglar in a residence at Bella Vista Estates, 705 Paul Smith Road. The "suspect" turned out to be the caller's mother who returned home.

9:21 p.m. - Morrow County sheriff's deputy Colleen Neubert was on patrol on Highway 74 near Hepper and thought she hit a puppy in the middle of the road.

Turned out this puppy was a young fox.

Neubert took the stunned canine to Lexington veterinarian Dick Temple, who examined the kit and found it was in shock but should be OK.

Neubert contacted the Oregon Department of Fish and Wildlife and Blue Mountain Wildlife, the animal recovery center on the outskirts of Pendleton, for a recommendation on what to do with the fox. The state agency recommended she return the pup to where she found it.

The fox soon came around, and Neubert placed it off the road, where it reunited with its mother.

Leslie worked mostly on the family ranch. He did take some time off to finish his college education at the University of Oregon in 1952 with a degree in business administration.

Leslie met Leolyn "Lee" Alberta Wilcox (originally from LaGrange, Ohio) in Cincinnati, Ohio, while visiting his cousin. Leslie and Lee were married on March 5, 1960, in Cincinnati. They resided in Pendleton for two years before moving to the family ranch on Butter Creek after the death of his father. He was partners with Ervin with Owen Ranches of Pilot Rock. Leslie and Lee moved to Pilot Rock in 1992. He moved to Suttle Care and Retirement in 2009 and liked to go out to the ranch and work on projects as often as possible.
