PHOEBE AND HER UNICORN

BY DANA SIMPSON

Why does rain smell so nice?

Unicorns.

Nuh uh.

So says unicorn legend.

Once, there was a unicorn called Dewdrop Sparkleshower. She was famous for how wonderful she smelled.

She wanted everyone to be able to enjoy her lovely scent, but she could only be in one place at any given time!

So she blessed the rain, so that any time it fell, the noses of the world would get a refreshing blast of Sparkleshower.

YOU just smell like wet unicorn.

Why, thank you!
