Joe Anne ‘Joey’ Duff

Hermiston
April 17, 1934 - April 24, 2018

Joey was born April 17, 1934, in Rouge River, Oregon, to parents Walter and Ruth Combs. She died on April 24, 2018, at Guardian Angel Homes in Hermiston at age 84.

At the age of two, her family moved to California living in Wilmington, San Leandro, San Lorenzo, Arkada, Weed, Bakersfield, Castro Valley, Hayward, Big Lagoon, Gualala, and Patrick’s Point, graduating from Pointe Arena High School. Her family also lived a short time in Tonopah, Nevada.

On June 10, 1952, after graduation, she married Robert (Bob) Duff in Cheyenne, Wyoming, while he was serving in the U.S. Air Force. Bob joined an international construction company after his military service, which took Joey (and family) to nine different states and South America. She became an expert at moving before settling in the Hermiston area in 1977.

Joey was a devout Christian and throughout the years was involved in numerous churches in Hermiston. She always wanted more in her relationship with God, never satisfied, always wanting to be a better Christian and a beacon of God’s light for those she knew and those she would come in contact with. Some described her as being exuberant about her relationship with God. Throughout the years in Hermiston she was involved in Aglow, National Day of Prayer, Campus Life, Christian Athletes, See you at the Pole, feeding the homeless, and served as Good Shepherd Hospital chaplain. She spent countless hours driving through Hermiston praying for revival. Survivors include three daughters Debby (Virgil) Culver of Goldendale, Washington, Laura (Larry) Harsin of Pendleton, Oregon, and Lisa (Mike) Bunch of Kennewick, Washington; 25 grandchildren; 58 great-grandchildren; and nine great-great-grandchildren. She was preceded in death by her parents, four sisters, her husband, and her only son Richard.

Celebration services will be held Monday, May 7, 2018, at 2:00 p.m. at the Hermiston Christian Center, 1825 W. Highland Ave., Hermiston, Oregon. Burial will follow at the Pleasant View Cemetery, Stanfield, Oregon. The celebration will continue with a potluck at Hermiston Christian Center, where there will be story sharing and music. Services will stream live at www.hcc4u.org (scroll down to “watch livestream services”). In lieu of flowers, contributions in Joey’s memory may be made to Operation Smile at operationsmile.org or by calling 1-888-677-6453.

In memory of Joey, listen to K-Love radio station at 93.3. or go to www.klove.com for a station near you. A special thanks to Burns Mortuary of Hermiston who is in charge of arrangements, the staff at Guardian Angel Assisted Living of Hermiston, the staff at Hermiston Christian Center, and the good people at Vange John Memorial Hospice.

Arlene ‘Abby’ Farrow-Stapleman

Mission
May 10, 1960 - April 27, 2018

Arlene “Abby” Farrow-Stapleman 57, of Mission, Ore., passed on to the spirit world on April 27, 2018, at her home on Tutuilla Flats in Mission, Ore. She was born on May 10, 1960, in Pendleton, Ore., to the late Elzie and Emma (Sheeships) Farrow. Abby was an enrolled member of the Confederated Tribes of the Umatilla Indian Reservation (CTUIR) and grew up on the Umatilla Indian Reservation. She worked at Wildhorse Resort Casino Hotel as an assistant manager, the CTUIR Education Department as an Indian education counsel for the Pilot Rock schools and the CTUIR Tribal Daycare as an assistant manager before health issues caused her to retire early.

Abby traveled throughout the Pacific Northwest and Canada attending pow wows and rodeos. She was a fancy shawl dancer in her youth and a short-fringe traditional dancer in her teen and adult years, and was an exceptional beadwork artist. Abby’s love for horses and rodeos in her youth followed her into adulthood where she met her husband Richard Stapleman in 1986 at the Yakima Rodeo.

Abby enjoyed attending Nixyáawii Community School basketball games to watch her grandnephews and niece and other family members. She took great pride in her family and extended family members’ participation in traditional activities. Abby took pride in gathering traditional foods and medicines and participating in tribal longhouse activities.

She is proceeded in death by her parents, Elzie and Emma, brother Michael “Jughead” Farrow, sister Louella Farrow, and nephew Gideon Farrow.

She is survived by her loving family: husband Richard Stapleman; daughters Adrienne Farrow (Jeremy) and Aaronessa Farrow-Frank (Brian); granddaughters Emmalyn, Aaronessa and Adairah; grandsons Tydan and Trésón; brothers Matthew, Bear (Linda) and Eldon Farrow; sisters Ceceila Sheeships, Therese Farrow and Carol Farrow-Morgan (David); nephews Matthew (Patty), Burke (Dawn), Dan and Jeremiah (Donna) Farrow, and Shawn and Joseph Meuchel; nieces Teara Farrow Ferman (Mauricio), Keysha Ashley (Aaron), Ciel Love (Nathaniel) and Alyssa Farrow; great-nephews Tiypao Farrow, Ira, Jace, and Ellis Ashley, Trent Hunt, Dresdon and Casey Farrow and Thaddeus Love; and great-nieces Marissa Baumgartner, Yessenia Ferman, Chelsea and Celia Farrow, Azure Rose, and Sophia Ferman.

A Dressing Ceremony was held on Monday April 30, 2018 at 2 p.m. at Burns Mortuary of Pendleton. A rosary at 6:00 p.m. was followed by Washat at 7:00 p.m. both at Longhouse. Final 7 at 7:00 a.m. was held Tuesday morning, May 1, 2018, at the Longhouse with Mass at St. Andrews at 9:00 a.m. and burial immediately after at St. Andrews Cemetery.

Burns Mortuary is in charge of funeral arrangements. Sign the online condolence book at www.burnsmortuary.com
