PHOEBE AND HER UNICORN

BY DANA SIMPSON

Do unicorns believe in free will?

I cannot speak for all unicorns...

But I have always believed unicorns have free will.

Animals, not so much.

Not dogs, or sea cucumbers, or humans...

Wait, you think of humans as animals?

"Animals" are all beings who are not unicorns.

So you don't believe I have free will??

I can perfectly predict your behavior.

NUH-UH!

No fair.

Now you are fated to admit I have blown your mind.
