ARRESTS, CITATIONS

Thursday
•Oregon State Police arrested Isabel Xiloj Thomas, 22 of Boardman, for driving under the influence of intoxicants.
Saturday
•Oregon State Police arrested Alexis Ramos Diaz, 21, of Milton-Freewater, for DUII (alcohol) and reckless driving.
•Pendleton police arrested a Washington man for threatening people with a gun at a hotel.
Officers responded at 12:12 p.m. to the Knights Inn, 310 S.E. Dorion Ave., after a manager called 911 about a man with a gun, Police Chief Stuart Roberts reported. The officers arrived and confronted Lawrence Blain Kaleak, 22, of Taholah, Washington. He was in front of room 108 and had a chrome-colored pistol at the time.
"As officers verbally confronted Kaleak, he attempted to conceal the handgun in his waistband as he retreated into his room," Roberts said. "Officers were able to get to the door of the room before Kaleak could close it."
Police continued to order Kaleak, who had his back toward them, but he eventually dropped the pistol on the bed, and officers arrested him.
Roberts also said police found alcoholic beverages and possibly controlled substances had impaired Kaleak.
Officers also determined that before the 911 call, Kaleak pointed the pistol at two people who were standing outside a bank of rooms smoking cigarettes.
"Kaleak allegedly demanded two cigarettes from the individuals while threatening to shoot them if they did not comply," Roberts stated.
Police booked Kaleak into the Umatilla County Jail, Pendleton, on the following: first-degree robbery, pointing a firearm at another, menacing, attempted unlawful use of weapon, felon in possession of a weapon, interfering with a peace officer and second-degree disorderly conduct.
•Hermiston police arrested Jeremy Everett Wells, 38, of Hermiston, for methamphetamine possession, interfering with a peace officer, second-degree theft and on a warrant for failure to appear.
•Hermiston police arrested Noah Lee Campbell, 23, of 935 N.W. Third St., Hermiston, for possession of oxycodone and on warrants for violating probation.
•Oregon State Police arrested Juan Beltran-Fuentes, 29, of Hermiston, for DUII and possession of methamphetamine.
Sunday
•Oregon State Police arrested Antonio Moreno, 52, of Kennewick, for DUII.

OBITUARIES

Helen M. Heideman

Hermiston
February 3, 1929 - May 11, 2018

As members of her family circled her bed and prayed with the Hospice chaplain, Helen Heideman passed away on Friday, May 11, 2018, at her home in Hermiston, Oregon. They shared the moment of her death and rejoiced in her release from earthly pain and suffering knowing she would be joining her beloved husband and family members who had passed before her.

Helen was born February 3, 1929, in Cheney, Washington, to parents LeRoy and Vera Woody, joining siblings Lyle, Loren and Letha. She was brought home to the family farm outside of Connell, Washington, where she was raised, went to school and met her high school sweetheart and the love of her life, Robert "Butch" Heideman. Helen played saxophone in the school band and sang in the glee club, graduating from CHS in June 1946.

Helen and Butch were married on February 22, 1948, and celebrated their life through love and faith and community involvement.

Together they raised their four children, Loren, Loa, Dana and Debbie, in Connell where Helen worked as a bookkeeper, a librarian and school secretary. Helen continued playing saxophone for dances and community functions, gardened, taught swimming lessons and served as a Girl Scout leader. She was active for years in the Connell Grange, Jayceettes and Gideon Lutheran Church.

Along with their sons, Helen and Butch purchased farm land near Ione, Oregon, in 1976 and began a life of farming for generations to come. As years passed, their daughters moved to the area and established their families near Helen and Butch. Along with farming and working for Battelle at the coal fire plant near Boardman, they owned Lone Hardware Store for five years.

She was active in the Ione Community Church, the Ione Cardinal Booster Club, and all things sports. She and Butch were always in attendance at Ione school sports and Helen kept books for the school basketball games.

Helen supported the annual church auction through her exquisite quilt making, and became known throughout the Ione community as the "go-to" grandma for making dozens of pies each week to be sold at the concession stand and local fundraisers.

Helen was preceded in death by her parents, husband, her three siblings and one great-granddaughter.

She is survived by her four children Loren Heideman (Della), Loa Heideman, Dana Heideman and Debbie Morgan (Virgil), nine grandchildren and 24 great-grandchildren.

Funeral service will be held at Thursday, May 17, 2018, at 10:30 a.m. at the Ione Community Church followed by internment at the High View Cemetery in Ione. A luncheon will be provided by the Good Neighbor Club at the Ione Community Church afterwards.

Donations can be made in her memory to the Ione Cardinal Booster Club, P.O. Box 4, Ione, OR 97843 or to the Ione Community Church, P.O. Box 346, Ione, OR 97843.

Sweeney Mortuary of Heppner is in care of arrangements.

Helen Mae Proebstel Swanson

Pendleton
May 21, 1924 - May 9, 2018

Helen Mae Proebstel Swanson, age 93, passed away at Sunridge Assisted Living on May 9, 2018. Helen was born May 21, 1924, in Pendleton to Charles Cyril and Lucille Mae Wolgamood Proebstel.

She was a lifelong resident of Pendleton, graduating in 1942. She graduated from Oregon State in 1946 where she was a member of Pi Beta Phi society.

Helen worked for 17 years at BMCC where she taught medical and legal secretarial students. She was a member of the 1941 Pendleton Round-Up court and was a lifelong rodeo fan, attending the rodeo every year right up to the end. She volunteered countless hours at the Umatilla County Historical Society and the Round-Up Hall of Fame, including serving on their boards and leading committees.

In 1996 she was the Woman of the Year because she is "absolutely dependable, unselfish, and committed ... caring and sensitive, mindful of the needs of others and the job to be done. People would be amazed at all she has accomplished, because she never invites attention to her efforts."

Helen was a lifelong member of the Pendleton Presbyterian Church, serving as an ordained deacon. She enjoyed riding, skiing, golf, tennis and bridge, and was an avid collector of cut glass. She was a member of PEO and Delphian. Helen enjoyed hosting parties and gatherings with friends and family, especially the annual round-up party after the show.

Helen was married to Robert L Swanson for 65 years. They had four children, Marsha of Albany, Shelley and husband DeWayne Dunlap of Athena, Lance (deceased), and Rod and wife Fay of Mosier, seven grandchildren, 10 great-grandchildren and one stepgranddaughter.

A memorial service will be June 13 at 2 p.m. at the Pendleton Presbyterian Church, with a reception following.

Donations in Helen's name can be made to the Umatilla County Historical Society or the Helen Swanson Business Scholarship Fund at Blue Mountain Community College in care of Pendleton Pioneer Chapel, 131 S.E. Byers Ave., Pendleton, OR 97801.
