OBITUARIES

Lyle James 'Jim' Roberts

Walla Walla
August 31, 1943 - April 7, 2018

Lyle James (Jim) Roberts, of Walla Walla, Wash., peacefully passed away at home, surrounded by his family on April 7, 2018.

Lyle is survived by his loving wife Bonnie (née Olsen) of Walla Walla; children Tim and Sunny of Hermiston, John of Walla Walla, Jeff and Julie, Jess and Sheryln of La Grande, and Angella and Troy Shane of Walla Walla; his 10 grandchildren; eight great-grandchildren; and sisters Alice Bartlett, Nora Pointer and Margaret (Peggy) Hubbard of Pendleton. He is preceded in death by his parents, Lyle Roland and Wilma (née Sanders) Roberts.

Lyle was born on August 31, 1943, in Yreka, Calif. At the age of three, he moved with his family to Dallas, Oregon, then to Pendleton at the age of 9. Eastern Oregon became his home and in 1962 he married Bonnie and they enjoyed nearly 56 years of devoted marriage.

Lyle was intentional in his quiet and tireless efforts to meet the needs of those around him, especially his family, and will be remembered as an excellent example of a strong man who always put the needs of others above his own. He made every decision based on a forward-thinking view of a desired impact or outcome, honest and helpful to those around him. He maintained this commitment to the end and continues to inspire many who witnessed his steadfastness to personal beliefs.

Lyle worked with his father in farming and ranching before settling down in La Grande. He worked for Boise Cascade for 23 years, retiring to a career as a corrections officer at the Eastern Oregon Correctional Institution. He retired from EOIC in 2003, worked briefly with his sons, and then finally retired in 2008. Lyle had a love of law enforcement and honorably served his communities as a reserve police officer, leading his sons into that field.

In addition to his illustrious career, Lyle was a dedicated Christian and Sunday school teacher, and was an accomplished educator, teaching firearm safety and personal protection. He dedicated his time to support his children through their various interests and hobbies. Many will remember him as the starter for thousands of races for the La Grande Swim Club and by his alias, "Bull Etslinger," as he shot competitively with his sons and friends.

A family gathering, and celebration is planned for August 25 in Walla Walla. For details, please contact a family member.

Betty J. Alexander

Milton-Freewater
June 11, 1932 - May 30, 2018

Betty J. Alexander, 85, of Milton-Freewater, Ore., passed away on Wednesday, May 30, 2018, in her home. She was surrounded by her family. Funeral services will be held Friday, June 8, 2018, at 10:00 a.m. at Christ the King Lutheran Church in Milton-Freewater, Ore., where she was a member. Interment will follow at the Milton-Freewater Cemetery. Viewing for family and friends will be held on Thursday, June 7 from 9 a.m. to 12 p.m., 1-5 p.m. and 7-9 p.m. at the Munselle-Rhodes Funeral Home in Milton-Freewater.

Memorial contributions in memory of Betty Alexander may be made to a charity of choice in care of the funeral home.

Betty was born June 11, 1932, in Calexico, Calif., to Lloyd and Ora Belle Logan. She was the eldest of four children. She got her degree in education, and taught at Freewater School. On September 22, 1962, she married Merton Alexander at Emanuel Lutheran Church in Walla Walla, Wash. They purchased a house southeast of Milton-Freewater, Ore., and settled in.

She was accomplished in sewing, loved to do craft projects and listen to music as well. Betty volunteered working at McLoughlin Union High School, tutoring and served a number of years on the Milton-Freewater School Board in the 1980s. She also was elected chairwoman of the Umatilla County Democrat Central Committee during this time as well. Betty worked many years as a CASA worker in the 1990s.

She is survived by her husband Merton Alexander and her children Steven, Jon and David Alexander in Milton-Freewater, Ore., and Lora Pease in Athena, Ore. She is also survived by seven grandchildren and two great-grandchildren as well as three siblings: Peggy Hellberg, Lloyd Logan and Robert Logan.

Betty Jane Gregory

Pendleton
April 22, 1947 - May 29, 2018

Betty Jane Gregory, 71, of Pendleton, Ore., passed away on May 29, 2018. She was born on April 22, 1947, to Charles and Betty (Noe) Roberts in La Junta, Colorado.

After graduating high school she met and married Charles Gregory. They had two daughters. She traveled twice to Germany with the children when Charles was stationed there. When she was home with the children she was part of a military wives club that offered support and camaraderie to those whose husbands were also stationed abroad. She was an active Seventh-day Adventist.

She took great pride in her daughter's young lives. They were both active in Girl Scouts. Betty taught them to bake cookies and participated in their bake sales. She loved to stay busy and was always finding ways to help her family with various activities and projects.

She and Charles later divorced. Her health started to deteriorate but she still loved the outdoors and would camp and fish as often as she could. Her first love and life were here family.

She is survived by daughters Tammie J. Cousin (Joe) and Kimberly A. Swanson (Scott); stepdaughter Shaylyn Johnston; 14 grandchildren; two sisters, Jeanette Sparkhawk and Cheri Roberts; and one brother Richard Lieberman.

There will be a Celebration of Life service at Burns Mortuary of Pendleton on Thursday June 7, 2018 at 1 p.m.

Burns Mortuary of Pendleton is in charge of arrangements. Sign the online condolence at www.burnsmortuary.com.
