

MARINERS: Gattis hits towering homer to left field in fourth

ninth inning, but Hector Rondon struck out Cruz to end it and get his first save.

Houston starter Lance McCullers allowed seven hits and four runs — three earned — in six-plus innings. Seattle starter Wade LeBlanc yielded seven hits and three runs in four innings.

Cruz gave the Mariners a 1-0 lead with his solo shot to the seats in left field with one out in the fourth inning.

Josh Reddick singled with one out in the fourth in his return after being sidelined with an infection near his right knee since May 21. Gattis followed with his towering homer to left field to put Houston on top

2-1. Kemp hit a two-out single and scored on a double by Springer that bounced off the wall in left-center, to push the lead to 3-1.

Cruz hit the last of three straight singles to send home a run with one out in the sixth inning and cut the lead to 3-2.

The Mariners tied it at 3-all on the first pitch of the seventh inning when Span sent a 93 mph fastball into the seats in right field. Guillermo Heredia then drew a walk to chase McCullers, who was replaced by Chris Devenski (2-1).

An error by Devenski when he overthrew first base allowed Heredia to advance to third base. The Mariners took a 4-3 lead when Jean Segura's grounder rolled just out of reach of a diving Altuve and into the outfield for a single with two outs.

Seager homered for the second straight game with a solo shot off Joe Smith in the eighth.

TRAINER'S ROOM

Astros: C Brian McCann, on the disabled list with right knee soreness, had a second straight heavy work day on Wednesday and manager A.J. Hinch said he could come off the disabled list sometime this weekend.

UP NEXT

Astros: Gerrit Cole (6-1, 2.20 ERA) will start when Houston opens a four-game series at Texas on Thursday. Cole, who leads the American League with 116 strikeouts, has a four-game winning streak.

Houston Astros' Josh Reddick (22) and designated hitter Evan Gattis (11) tap helmets after scoring on a home run by Gattis during the fourth inning of the team's baseball game against the Seattle Mariners on Wednesday in Houston.
