Leslie 'Babe' Flint

Pilot Rock
July 8, 1938 - June 23, 2018

Flint

Leslie Flint, better known as "Babe," lost his life due to an accident on June 23, 2018. Babe was born on July 8, 1938, to Clarence and Mildred (Bestrom) Flint in Colville, Wash. The Flint family moved to Ukiah, Oregon, in 1942. His dad was a logger in the Ukiah area. Babe's school years were at Ukiah and he graduated in 1956. Shortly after graduation, he joined the Navy. His military time was mostly aboard the aircraft carrier the USS Shangri-La, as an aircraft mechanic. The commander of that ship was Eugene Cernan, who later was the last man to walk on the moon during the Apollo mission.

After four years in the Navy, he returned to Ukiah and began a career in logging. He had many employers over the years and he worked mostly as a log truck driver. Near the end of his career, he drove for Britt Brothers. He considered them family and they him. Babe was well liked by all, a kind and considerate person. Babe and Jo loved camping, sports, hunting, and the great outdoors. Babe especially followed the Mariners and the basketball team for the Gonzaga Bulldogs. He often checked in with his brother, Chuck, to discuss the outcome of these games.

He was predeceased by his wife, Joann; his parents; his sister Anna Mae Rowe and her husband, Wayne; stepdaughter Kim Hinkle; niece Barbara Rowe Jackson, and other family members.

His survivors are his brother Charles and sister-in-law Shirley Flint; nieces Beverly Orcutt, Lynn Myers, Cynndi Mazi, Jill Collins and JoAnn Byrd, along with their husbands and children; nephews Mike, Doug and Kenny Flint, along with their wives and children; and son-in-law Jim Hinkle and wife Nancy (they have been a godsend during this tragic time). We will miss him greatly.

The graveside service will be held on Friday, June 29th at 2 p.m. at the Pilot Rock Cemetery. A luncheon will follow the service at the Pilot Rock Community Center. Please join the family for a celebration of his life.

Online condolences may be shared with the family at www.pioneerchapel.com

She was born February 16, 1966, the third of five children to Dexter and Corinne (Sigelkew) Miles of Heppner. The family moved several times between Montana and Oregon, but eventually returned to Heppner, where Carla attended Heppner schools and graduated from Heppner High School in 1984. After graduation, she attended Blue Mountain Community College in Pendleton, Ore.

On Sept. 7, 1985, she married Roger Morter of Ione. The couple settled on a family farm on Sand Hollow and raised six children along with wheat and cattle. Eventually they added a farm on the Kootenai River in Bonners Ferry, Idaho, dividing their time between the two communities.

Carla lived a life of faith and was active in her church, Hermiston Christian Center, as well as in her children's Christian school.
