

OSU: Game 3 tonight at 4 p.m. on ESPN

On a 1-1 pitch from Matt Cronin (2-2), Grenier popped the ball high behind first base and toward the stands. There was plenty of room to make the catch, and second baseman Carson Shaddy, first baseman Jared Gates and right fielder Eric Cole converged. No one took charge and the ball hit the ground.

"I was running and didn't hear anybody call it, and I overran it," Shaddy said.

While the ball was in the air, Grenier said, he hoped it would flare off into the stands.

"I knew I hit it decently deep so it wasn't going to be a routine pop foul catch," he said. "It wasn't. It landed in a spot between three guys, and it worked to our advantage."

Cronin took a moment to compose himself, wiping his brow and adjusting his hat. His next pitch was way high and, after a foul ball, Grenier sent a drive into left field to score Clayton. Grenier pumped his fist as he ran to first and punched the air twice more when he rounded the base.

Larnach's 19th homer of the season ramped up the celebration in the Beavers' dugout. Kevin Abel (7-1), who pitched the eighth, gave way to closer Jake Mulholland in the ninth. The game ended when Mulholland fielded Casey Martin's comebacker and threw to second to start a double play.

"You've got to move on," said Arkansas coach Dave Van Horn, whose team had been 44-0 when leading after eight innings. "You can't take it back. It's over. Get your head up and start getting your mind right because it's going to be tomorrow before you know it and we need to come out here and give ourselves a chance." The Beavers have been the hottest hitting team throughout the CWS but struggled to convert chances in the finals until they caught their huge break in the ninth inning.

They had runners on first and third with none out in the sixth when Kyle Nobach popped up a bunt that pitcher Kole Ramage caught. Ramage then threw back to third to double off Grenier, and a groundout ended the inning.

Adley Rutschman, who homered in the fourth, singled leading off the Oregon State eighth and was on third after a passed ball. Cronin came on, struck out Tyler Malone and got pinch hitter Steven Kwan to fly out.

"We were looking for something good to happen, and needed something good to happen," OSU coach Pat Casey said. "Our guys never gave in. So I think that that's what created that opportunity for us to have something good happen."

PITCHING MATCHUP

Arkansas will send Isaiah Campbell (5-6) to the mound for Game 3. Casey did not name his starter. The Oregon State coach said his pitching staff is spent and that whoever starts probably won't go more than five innings.

BIG BULLPEN

Oregon State's bullpen has worked 37 innings over seven games and allowed just seven earned runs. Relievers have combined for 38 strikeouts and 14 walks.

"They've kept us in the game," said catcher Rutschman. "We've had to use a lot of pitching. We've played a lot of games here."

"They are playing a huge part in our success. Hopefully we can keep that up for one more game."

Alyssa Ray from Echo/Stamfield, catcher Alex Putman from Echo/Stamfield, infielders Jordany Lambert (Weston-McEwen), Bailey Botefuhr (Irrigon), Michelle Weems (Echo/Stamfield), and Kendra Hart (Echo/Stamfield), outfielders Lauryn Journot (Umatilla), Marti Huff (Echo/Stamfield), Amber Weems (Echo/Stamfield), and utility players Charmayne Bennett (Weston-McEwen) and Alex Ford (Umatilla).

Seven of those players also earned spots on the Class 3A all-state team, voted on by the classification's coaches.
