OBITUARIES

John Schultz

Pendleton
May 25, 1962 - July 11, 2018

John Schultz of Pendleton, Oregon (formerly of LeMars, Iowa, and Beaumont, California), died peacefully July 11, 2018, at Kadlec Medical Center in Richland, Wash., surrounded by love.

John Francis Schultz was born in LeMars May 25, 1962, to Francis and Genevieve Schultz. He attended LeMars community schools and graduated in 1980.

After high school graduation Schultz he attended Iowa Danelles Community College in Emmetsburg, Iowa, and graduated with an AAS in horticulture. He spent two years in Arlington, Texas, working for a golf course.

John enlisted in the United States Navy and proudly served his country from July of 1984 to March of 1988 when he was honorably discharged. He was aboard the sub tender the USS Holland. John looked back on those four years as the best of his life. He was so proud to serve his country.

He began working for Sherwin Williams and that job took him to Utah, California and lastly to Pendleton, Oregon, where he resided until his death.

John loved to travel, fish, camp, and read old western books and had the whole series of the Rush Limbaugh books. His family was so important to him, and the friends in Pendleton who became like family meant so much.

John will be greatly missed by his sisters Mary (Kevin) Helton of Happy Valley, Oregon, Susan (Jerry) Flores of Mission Viejo, California, and Janette (Bill) Woodall of Marcus, Iowa, and his nieces and nephews Tony and Sydnee, Katie, Bryan and Danielle, and Justin and Jade. His great-nieces and -nephews, cousins and friends will also miss him and his quirky sense of humor.

John was preceded in death by his parents Francis and Genevieve Schultz.

John's final wishes will be granted with a full rights military service in Hawaii with burial at sea at a later date. As his shipmates say, Fair Winds and Following Seas.

For those who wish to express and/or support can leave messages here or mail cards to his next of kin, his sidekick in childhood: Mary Helton, 12317 S.E. Verlie St., Happy Valley, OR 97086. We would love to hear the stories of his life in Pendleton.
