

PUBLIC SAFETY LOG

MONDAY

6:43 a.m. - Hermiston police took a report for graffiti on West Orchard Avenue.
 8:10 a.m. - A caller reported a woman allowed a toddler to roam around inside a green Toyota Highlander while driving west on Interstate 84 near Boardman. The Morrow County Sheriff's Office had no deputies in position and referred the report to Oregon State Police.
 9:15 a.m. - Hermiston police took a report for a burglary on the 2100 block of South First Street.
 10:42 a.m. - A caller asked the Morrow County Sheriff's Office to speak to employees at the Colt Cafe, 233 N. Main St., Heppner, about smoking in front of the building and parking area and "leaving the remnants." A deputy addressed the issue with the owners, who stated the employees would now only smoke out back of the business.
 10:49 a.m. - Vehicles parking near the bus stop sign on Southwest 11th Street close to Chateaubri Mobile Home Park, Hermiston, drew a complaint for blocking the view of oncoming traffic. The caller asked police to see look into remedies for the situation.
 1:59 p.m. - In what now seems like a weekly occurrence, Stanfield police again issued several citations for the stench coming from the 3D Idapro Solutions pet food processing facility on Hoosier Lane. Ah, the smell of progress.
 3:30 p.m. - A caller reported someone took items from the garbage at white-colored apartments at West Orchard Avenue and Southwest 10th Street, Hermiston. The caller also said the suspect was his mother.
 4:48 p.m. - Hermiston police responded to the 500 block of West Hartley Avenue for a male trying to break into a house.
 5 p.m. - People using spotlights and shooting at night in lone drew a request for more Morrow County sheriff's patrols. The caller said the incidents occurred on their property at McCabe Lane and Brenner Canyon Road.
 6:24 p.m. - Adams residents called for help when a 30-year-old man in their home began "talking about angels and demons and yelling at others."
 9:14 p.m. - A 911 caller reported a wheat fire threatened to engulf structures on Circle Road, Pilot Rock.
 10:07 p.m. - Umatilla police received a 911 call about gunshots at the soccer field behind the Umatilla Marina RV Park, 1710 Quincy Ave., and a vehicle speeding away.

ARRESTS, CITATIONS

*Oregon State Police arrested Tanner Wayne Butler, 24, of Dayton, Washington, for driving under the influence of intoxicants (controlled substance), reckless driving and misdemeanor possession of a federally controlled substance.
 *A noise complaint led to an arrest.
 The Morrow County Sheriff's Office at 7:26 p.m. received a complaint from an Irigon resident on Southeast Utah Avenue about a driver in a silver Dodge Caliber turning up their music "really loud" as the vehicle passed his house. A deputy responded and found Kari Lynn Rytting, 37, of Irigon, and arrested her on warrants for failing to appear.
 *Pendleton police arrested Cesar Enrique Argueta, 23, of Pendleton, for fourth-degree domestic violence assault.

Nancy Wilson
January 10, 1950 - July 10, 2018

Nancy Jean Stirewalt Wilson passed away at her home on Butte Creek surrounded by family on Tuesday, July 10, 2018 after a nearly two year fight with brain cancer. Nancy's unfathomable faith, grace and grit were a true testimony during her 23 month battle.

Nancy was born on January 10, 1950 to Jim and Effie (Snabel) Stirewalt of Kimberly, Oregon. She attended grade school and high school in Monument where she was involved in sports, cheerleading, theater, and dancing the Charleston. She was a Grant County Fair and Rodeo Princess and a Spray Rodeo Queen. Nancy participated in 4-H from age nine until her passing. Stirewalt Ranch activities were an enormous part of Nancy's childhood and that love of ranching lasted throughout her lifetime. Nancy attended Eastern Oregon State College and graduated from Northwestern Business School in Portland in 1970.

Nancy was married to Phil Wilson of Mayville on July 25, 1970 in Monument. They spent the first two years of their marriage in San Luis Obispo, California while Phil finished up his schooling at Cal Poly. Nancy was employed at the university in Ag Business Management and Home Economics. Phil and Nancy moved to the ranch on Butte Creek outside Fossil in 1972. It was here that they raised their three children Milne, Kara, and Zane. Nancy was well known for her abilities as a seamstress. She also enjoyed baking, canning, crocheting, embroidery, and gardening.

Ranching was in Nancy's blood and she was a true partner to Phil in all aspects of raising cattle on Wilson Ranches. In March 2000 Phil and Nancy opened Wilson Ranches Retreat Bed and Breakfast to nurture guests' body and soul, offering an opportunity to experience ranch living and the beauty of Eastern Oregon's high desert. Guests from all over the world have become a part of the Wilson Ranches family.

Nancy's deepest joys were celebrating the life she created with her Cowboy and family. Nancy started horse racing as a young girl and was in her final race at the Spray Rodeo at the age of 45, breaking a wedding vow. She loved that she raised her family on horseback and taught thousands from around the world to ride. Nancy will be remembered for her smile, laugh, and the amazing hugs that made strangers feel like family.

Nancy was involved in the Bit and Spur Club, Wheeler County Fair Board, Wheeler County CowBelles, Oregon CowBelles, Eastern Oregon Pioneer Association, and as a 4-H leader. Nancy was so honored when she and Phil were asked to be Grand Marshals of the Wheeler County Fair in 2015. Nancy worked as a bookkeeper, receptionist and eventually administrator at Asher Community Health Center. She was instrumental in bringing Home Health to Wheeler County and was so blessed to benefit from the care of Home Health in her final days.

Nancy is survived by her husband Phil Wilson of Fossil; children Milne (Mike) Macy of Culver, Kara (Brian) Anglin of Fossil, Zane (Marissa) Wilson of Madras; grandchildren Tegan and Kailee Macy, Marina and Dima Anglin, Nate and Sam Wilson; great-granddaughter Lillian; sisters Judy Bertsch, Dina Stirewalt, Elizabeth Parke, and brother Jim Stirewalt; and numerous nieces and nephews. Nancy was preceded in death by her parents Jim and Effie Stirewalt and sister Lula Daniels.

A celebration of Nancy's life will be held at Julia Henderson Pioneer Park on Saturday, July 21, at 10 a.m. Nancy had a lifetime love of county fairs starting in Grant County. The Wilson family asks in lieu of flowers, donations can be made in Nancy's honor to 4-H and FFA programs in your county or to the Eastern Oregon Pioneer Association.
