Verna Lee Danielson

Walla Walla

August 20, 1928 - July 6, 2018

Danielson

Beloved daughter, sister, wife, mother, mother-in-law, grandmother, great-grandmother, auntie, great-auntie, co-worker and dear friend to so many left earth's shores and entered Heavenly shores on July 6, 2018.

Born the third child of six, August 20, 1928, to Leander and Verna Hurst, she loved her name, being named after her parents, Verna and Lee! She was born in Faxon, Okla., though raised in the towns of Farwell and Muleshoe, Texas.

She met (Ardean) Bud Danielson, and married in 1947. The following year their first child was born. As the due date grew closer to her 20th birthday, Bud told her, "You can have a girl if it is on your birthday." So on the 20th of August, 1948, on her 20th birthday, her first child and one of two daughters was born. Darrell, the only son, made his debut on September 1, 1950, and her third child and second daughter, Cheryl, blessed her on March 7, 1952.

Opportunity brought them to Milton-Freewater, Oregon, in 1952. Bud, a truck driver, and Verna, homemaker, began building a home with their three children in this beautiful valley. They both loved it here. They farmed, made close friends, and Verna worked at Price's IGA in the bakery. Cancer struck, and eventually Bud lost his battle with cancer in 1975.

Though a widow, Verna stayed on the farm with friend and companion Bill Duval, keeping the acreage going. A fall in her home in 2010 revealed the ravages of bone loss due to osteoporosis. Spinal surgery left her needing a smaller living environment. She moved into Park Plaza on Dalles Military Road, where she has resided for past eight years. This has been her home and her friends at Park Plaza have been so dear to her. We thank each one who have made her day a bit brighter!

Ingle Chapel Church was also a dear part of her life. So many friends, and stories, prayers and pain, have been woven into her fabric of life. We are so grateful for that joy! She was an awesome friend to many and gossip was never on her lips!

She loved her flowers, her family and friends, or any child, and was also known for whipping up a pie! She did love the garden club in Milton-Freewater as well!

She is survived by Cheryl Danielson, and husband Don Funderburk, of Springfield, Oregon; Darrell and Jan Danielson of Milton-Freewater, Oregon; Linda and Bryan Gent of Milton-Freewater, Oregon; seven grandchildren; eight great-grandchildren; two sisters, Dorothy Sommers, Fallbrook, California, and Nancy Hurst Johnson, Yakima, Wash.; sister-in-law Barbara (Lewis) Hurst, Yakima; and lots of nieces and nephews.

Deceased siblings are Samuel and Lewis Hurst and LaVelle Wallbaum, all of Yakima.

As a family we are so grateful for the sacrificial caregiving at Park Plaza, Regency at the Park, Providence Hospital, Dr. Haugen, surgeons and nurses who sacrificially gave of their hearts for her care and comfort.

Although she loved flowers, we believe she would be thrilled for contributions to Breadbasket in Milton-Freewater, Christian Aide Center in Walla Walla or a charity of your choice.

We welcome you to join us in a Celebration of her Life on July 29, 2018, from 2-4 p.m. at Park Plaza, 1400 Dalles Military Road, Walla Walla, WA 99362. Food, drinks and fellowship will follow.

She enjoyed her co-workers and customers, many of whom remained friends for life. Doris and Gene then spent the next 10 years traveling in their motorhome before Gene passed away in 2010.

She enjoyed working outside in her gardens and traveling with her family. Doris was a member of Grace Baptist Church where she enjoyed worship, Bible study, and planning the music for Sunday services. Doris will be greatly missed by her family and many friends.
