HERMISTON

National Night Out offers ice cream social

Treasure hunt leads up to annual event

By TAMMY MALGESINI
East Oregonian

It's time to get in touch with your inner Sherlock Holmes as the annual National Night Out treasure hunt is set to begin in Hermiston.

Tim Miears, training officer/evidence custodian with Hermiston Police Department, hid a golden medallion as part of Hermiston's festivities. About 3 inches in diameter, it's attached to a red, white and blue ribbon, Annual National Night Out activities have been going on across the country for 35 years and this is Hermiston's 20th year of participating. The purpose, Miears said, is to encourage neighbors to get to know each other, which helps in reducing crime. The event also provides an opportunity for first responders to visit with citizens in a relaxed setting.

"Every community does something a little bit different to celebrate," said Capt. Travis Eynon. "In Hermiston, we like to spread the fun over several days by incorporating a community treasure hunt."

Studies show that people take more ownership in their neighborhoods when they know who lives around them. Crime rates are often reduced when neighbors are more aware of each other and their comings and goings.

The treasure hunt, Miears said, is a fun way to get people excited leading up to National Night Out, which is Tuesday, Aug. 7. In his second year of heading up the treasure hunt, Miears said he wanted to hide the medallion in a place that would make Those planning a neighborhood gathering are encouraged to contact Miears at 541-667-5112 or tmiears@hermiston.or.us.

"National Night Out helps in people coming together as a community," Miears said.
