Weekend violence in Chicago kills 11, injures 70

CHICAGO (AP) — At least 11 people were shot to death and about 70 wounded in a weekend burst of violence in Chicago that instantly became a political issue when President Donald Trump's lawyer, Rudy Giuliani, blamed the carnage on longtime Democratic rule in the city.

Police on Monday attributed the dozens of shootings to gangs, the illegal flow of guns and sweltering August heat that drew more people outside.

The victims ranged in age from 11 to 63, according to police. One teenage girl died after being shot in the face. A teenage boy was fatally shot riding a bike Sunday afternoon. Other shootings took place at a block party and a funeral.

Even for Chicagoans all too accustomed to violence in parts of the city, the weekend stood out. By way of comparison, at least seven people were killed and 32 wounded during the long Memorial Day weekend, the Chicago Tribune reported.

"Our souls are burdened," Mayor Rahm Emanuel said. "It is unacceptable to happen in any neighborhood of Chicago. We are a better city."

Echoing comments that Trump himself has made repeatedly about Chicago, Giuliani blamed Emanuel — President Barack Obama's White House chief of staff — and decades of "one party Democratic rule" in a series of tweets on Sunday and Monday.

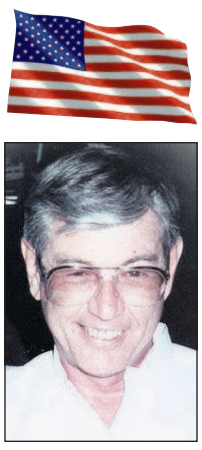
The former New York mayor also tweeted his support for Chicago mayoral candidate and former Police Superintendent Garry McCarthy, referring to him as "Jerry" and calling him a "policing genius."

McCarthy plans to run next February against Emanuel, who fired McCarthy in 2015 after the release of dashcam video showing a white police officer kill a black teenager by shooting him 16 times.

OBITUARIES

Roy Huot Barnes

Bingen, Wash.
July 21, 2018



Barnes

A descendant of Klickitat County pioneers, Roy Huot Barnes was the first child of Charles Kenneth Barnes and Dolly Karama Huot Barnes. Born in Bingen, Washington, in early 1936, Roy graduated from Pendleton High School in 1954, joined the United States Army and was stationed in Germany.

After being discharged in August of 1956, Roy went immediately to Willamette University on a football scholarship, then joined the Oregon State Police on June 17, 1957. Roy eventually retired as a lieutenant from the Oregon State Police Department at Baker, Oregon, on December 31, 1985, after 29 and one half years of service.

Roy had two children, Donald Roy Barnes and Julie Rene Barnes.

Roy married Betty Joyce Pierce on November 6, 1984. They were married 35 years. Roy and Betty each made the other a better person. She was the love of his life. After they retired, Roy and Betty traveled for approximately two years before taking on a second career buying and selling antiques and traveling from show to show for the next ten years. Roy and Betty might have woken up and decided to take off in 2 hours' time for another adventure. Roy would never tie himself down to a specific schedule, it was always "let's play it by ear." He kept Betty on her toes. Roy and Betty were always together and spent many hours exploring Eastern Oregon on 4-wheelers. He loved to hunt and fish and did these things as long as his health allowed him.

In later years Parkinson's and diabetes took many things from Roy. His sense of humor stayed with him, although Parkinson's stole his voice. He could no longer travel but he walked to the coffee shop for the usual group chat every day. He will be missed by his family and friends. We loved him very much.

Survivors include his wife Betty Barnes of Bingen; children Don Massey of Portland, Oregon, and Julie Kerns of Haines, Oregon; from a former marriage, stepchildren Renee Moore, Trina Betty and Tara Bishop; brother Don Barnes of Pendleton, Oregon; sister Lola Riddle of Vancouver, Washington; two grandchildren; five great-grandchildren and numerous nieces, nephews, cousins and in-laws.

A memorial service will be held at 4 p.m. on Saturday, August 18 at Community Connections in Baker City.

Memorial contributions may be made in Roy's name to the Bingen Fire Department, Bingen City Park or Eagles Grand Aerie Parkinson's Research.
