Parade float springs into foster family fundraiser

By TAMMY MALGESINI
East Oregonian

People who enjoy horsing around are encouraged to buy a raffle ticket for a chance to win a rocking horse created with a heavy-duty truck spring.

Sales from tickets will benefit the Department of Human Services Child Welfare program's foster parent and child fund. It will provide additional money that's used for special events for local foster parents and foster kids, said Marvin Hamilton, a DHS certifier.

"I thought adults would love one of these things," Hamilton said. "It's very sturdy and stable. I bounced around pretty good on it during the fair parade."

Hamilton made it with assistance from Jason Bremner, for the DHS float during the Umatilla County Fair parade. Hamilton named the creation Brando, which is painted to look like an Appaloosa.

Created with metal work and fabrication, the rocking horse is approximately 4 feet long. The spring was donated by Hagerman Inc. in Umatilla.

Raffle tickets are $20 each and can be purchased by asking for a DHS certifier at offices in Hermiston, Pendleton and Boardman. In addition, people can see Brando by stopping by the department's fair booth this week at Eastern Oregon Trade and Event Center, 1705 E. Airport Road, Hermiston. Tickets also will be available for purchase in Booth 32 in EOTEC's main building.

Brando, a heavy-duty rocking horse created for the DHS Child Welfare parade float, will be raffled off to benefit the organization's foster parent and child fund.

Brando, Hamilton said, also will make an appearance during the Main Street Cowboys Dress Up Parade, which is Saturday, Sept. 8 at 10 a.m. in downtown Pendleton. The drawing will be a week after that, he said.

DHS Child Welfare, Hamilton said, is looking at hosting a winter event that offers foster families an opportunity to get out of the house and have fun. They envision providing food and bouncy houses, face painting, games and other indoor fun to help alleviate cabin fever.

The Cold War Patriots present the town hall meetings to provide information about the Energy Employees Occupational Illness Compensation Program Act. Anyone who worked at the Hanford Site or any other nuclear weapons facility is invited to attend. Representatives will present information about financial and medical benefits available, and guide people through the process of proving the connection between their workplace exposure and their illness.

The regional gatherings, which are free and include refreshments, are:

•Wednesday at 10 a.m. and 2 p.m. at Red Lion-Columbia Center, 1101 N. Columbia Center Blvd., Kennewick.

•Thursday at 10 a.m. and 2 p.m. at Red Lion-Hanford House, 802 George Washington Way, Richland.

The morning sessions are for people who have already applied for EEOICPA benefits and have either been awarded a U.S. Department of Labor white medical benefits card or have a pending claim. The afternoon gatherings are for those who haven't yet applied for benefits or who have applied but their claims have been denied.
