110 Announcements

Hermiston School District wants to inform parents/guardians and former Special Education students that on October 1, 2018, the district will destroy the records of students who ended/exited Special Education Services from 1980-1998.

If a student wants to obtain their record, he/she needs to sign a consent for release of information and provide photo identification. The record can be obtained at the Hermiston School District Office in person or can be faxed. All unclaimed records will be destroyed on October 1.

For additional information, please contact Special Programs Secretary Tracy Hepworth at (541) 667-6035.
