Private security guard found shot to death in Eugene

EUGENE (AP) — Eugene Police say a 69-year-old man working as a private security guard was shot and killed early Friday in west Eugene.

Sgt. Tim Haywood says Frank Ledgett, of Springfield, was found dead in a parking lot and police have launched a homicide investigation.

Haywood says Ledgett was working as a security guard on the commercial property before the shooting.

Officers responded to the scene shortly after midnight after receiving reports of shots being fired.

The Register-Guard reports that no arrests have been made and police have released few details about the circumstances around Ledgett's death.

Police shoot, kill man near Hwy. 97

KLAMATH FALLS (AP) — Authorities in southern Oregon say police shot and killed a male suspect and are searching for a woman who ran from the scene near Modoc Point.

Klamath County Sheriff Chris Kaber says the man was shot Friday morning in the area of Modoc Point just off of U.S. Highway 97 in southern Oregon. He says no officers were seriously injured. He did not immediately provide details about what led to the shooting.
