Man sentenced to prison, deportation for drug conviction

MEDFORD (AP) — A man who helped hold a victim for ransom in an attempt to collect on a six-figure marijuana deal has been sentenced to prison and deportation for a second time in federal court.

The Mail Tribune reports that 40-year-old Adrian Rivera-Espinosa was sentenced Thursday in U.S. District Court after two California men used his home to attempt to collect on a $200,000 marijuana debt by luring the victim there and threatening the victim with dismemberment.

Rivera-Espinosa already had pleaded guilty to a felony count of coercion in state court in the case.

He entered the U.S. legally in 1996 but was lost his residency in 2002 after he was convicted of trafficking cocaine.

He returned illegally in 2009.

Defendant lunges for officer's gun in Oregon courtroom

NEWPORT (AP) — Officials with the Lincoln County Sheriff's Office say a man tried to grab a police officer's gun in a Newport courtroom this week and that a year-old federal appeals decision contributed to the near-disaster.

The Oregonian/Oregon-Live reports a judge had denied a request by deputies to restrain 27-year-old Scott Lemmon in court Wednesday.

In a scuffle caught on courtroom video, a man identified by authorities as Lemmon stands up and lunges for a gun worn by a Newport police officer sitting at the counsel table nearby.

The officer turned away and a courthouse deputy tackled Lemmon to the floor.

Authorities say this is the first case of a Lincoln County defendant grabbing for a gun since the 9th U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals ruled in 2017 to allow judges to decide if defendants are restrained when escorted into the courtroom.

Police identify man killed by officer at Portland motel

PORTLAND (AP) — Authorities have identified the Oregon man killed by police at a motel in southeast Portland.

KATU-TV reports police say 30-year-old Samuel Rice was shot by an officer after he held a woman hostage at the Del Rancho Motel on Wednesday.

The state medical examiner determined that Rice died from the gunshot wound.

The officer was placed on paid administrative leave, which is standard procedure in a police shooting.

No one else was hurt during the encounter. Police say they had taken Rice to hospitals several times in the past for mental health treatment. The Behavioral Health Unit had also tried multiple times to connect him to services.
