OBITUARIES

The Reverend Kenneth Wayne (Papa) Crysler

Pendleton

June 9, 1939 - November 3, 2018

Fr. Ken was born in Chicago, Ill., to parents Kenneth Walter and Lucille Crysler on June 9, 1939. After lengthy illnesses, he passed at his home in Pendleton, with those he loved, at the age of 79.

He was primarily raised in Wisconsin, with his family finally settling in Plymouth, Ind., during his high school years. He was an accomplished musician, playing bassoon in a symphony, saxophone in his own dance band, and winning the Indiana State Solo competition for bassoon three years.

After his high school graduation he enlisted in the U.S. Navy, serving four years. He was stationed aboard the USS Conway with Dean Gardner, who would introduce him to the love of his life, Sabra Gardner. He and Sabra were married July 18, 1964, and would enjoy 54 years of blessed marriage.

He graduated from Indiana State University with a bachelor's degree in education. That became a master's from Eastern Oregon University. He began teaching at Pendleton High School in 1968, and he retired in 1997. Teaching was one of the true passions and joys of his life.

In 1972, he began his studies for the ministry, graduating from The Episcopal Seminary of the Southwest in 1976, and was ordained to the priesthood in 1977. He served the Episcopal Diocese of Eastern Oregon as a supply priest, as associate priest at Church of the Redeemer in Pendleton, and vicar at St. Stephen's, Baker City. He performed hundreds of services, baptisms, marriages and funerals.

Though his health declined in his later years, he became a sheep rancher, studied quantum physics and psychology, wrote and published several books, and was a student of life.

He loved to read and never stopped learning. He loved his wife and children dearly, and he lived for his grandchildren.

In addition to his wife, he is survived by son Kenneth William (Christine) Crysler, Ontario, Ore.; daughter Sabrina (Cameron) Gillespie, Secret Harbour, Western Australia; and grandchildren Gabriel Billings, Jessica Billings, Ella Gillespie, Evangeline Crysler and Kenneth James Crysler.

He was preceded in death by his parents, and sister RuthAnn Wraith.

A memorial service will be held at Church of the Redeemer, Pendleton, Ore., November 14 at 12:00 noon, with reception to follow in Crysler Hall.

Memorial contributions can be made in his name to Episcopal Church of the Redeemer, 241 S.E. Second St., Pendleton, 97801 or Ascension School Camp and Conference Center, Box 278, Cove, OR 97824. Arrangements are being handled by Pendleton Pioneer Chapel, Folsom-Bishop. Online condolences may be sent to www.pioneerchapel.com.

Oregon teen mayor from Yoncalla: People can serve no matter their age

PORTLAND (AP) — The teenager elected mayor of his small Oregon city plans to be a steward for the budget and a proponent for growth.

Voters in Yoncalla last week elected Ben Simons, 18, to be mayor of the city about 44 miles south of Eugene, the Oregonian reported.

Simons beat out two other candidates with 41 percent of the vote and will take office Jan. 1. He is optimistic that he can make a difference when it comes to growth.

"So far, that hasn't been happening as good as I believe it should be," he said. "In two years, I think I can get this town headed down the right path."

Simons experienced success and public service before the election. He was Yoncalla High School Class of 2018 valedictorian and was twice elected class president.

Months before the election Tuesday, he was appointed to the Yoncalla City Council after another member resigned for health reasons.

Simons was just visiting City Hall and the mother of a close friend told him about the city council opening.

"It just ended up being one of those things where I got in there, she mentioned it to me, and I said, 'Let's do it,'" he said. He took office in September.

He's also a volunteer firefighter and a student at Umpqua Community Col-

Samuel Michael 'Mike' McPheters

Ivins, Utah

April 13, 1943 - November 10, 2018

Samuel Michael "Mike" McPheters left this life and began his greatest adventure on November 10, 2018.

Mike touched countless lives with his ability to become fast friends with everyone who crossed his path, from extended family to elevator acquaintances. When news of his death began to spread, well wishes flooded in from hundreds of people whose lives he had touched for good. These beautiful tributes to Mike brought great comfort and peace to his family.

Mike was born in Boise, Idaho, on April 13, 1943, to Thelma Harriet Worthington and Norris Warnick Peterson. When he was 5 years old, his stepdad, Erwin McPheters, came into his life and raised him as his own.

Mike graduated in Spanish from Brigham Young University in 1968 and earned his MBA and MPA from City University in 1995.

He started working for the Federal Bureau of Investigation as a special agent in 1968 and enjoyed an exciting career with the Bureau for 30 years. He loved being a member of the FBI SWAT Team for 20 of those years.

After retirement, Mike started a private investigative business, taught college classes, became a state-certified Spanish interpreter, authored three books and traveled the world as a cruise ship lecturer.

Mike was very service oriented and served as a Bishop for the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints four times, served many years as a Boy Scout leader, was a member of Rotary Club in Pendleton, Ore., and Moses Lake, Wash., and was precinct chairman for the Republican Party in Ivins, Utah.

Mike loved sports and being in the outdoors. He earned a varsity letter from College of Idaho in football, played in the Paraguayan National Basketball Championship, ran 19 marathons, and was an avid weightlifter, hiker, hunter, and fisherman.

Dad says his greatest accomplishment was marrying Judy Ann Kirwan on April 30, 1965, and having a family. He leaves behind his loving wife; five children: Marni (Preston) Wilks, Shad (Marnie) McPheters, Tylee (Larence) Searle, Shayna (Alex) Nabaum and Justin (Katrina) McPheters; 28 grandchildren; two great-grandchildren; a brother, Wally (Debbie) McPheters; and a sister, Sondra (Max) Wilson.

Services will be held at the Center Street Chapel of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints in Ivins, Utah, at 10:30 a.m. on Friday, November 16. The family will host an open house to visit and greet friends at the same location on November 15 from 6:00-8:00 p.m.

In lieu of flowers, the family asks you to consider making a donation to LDS Philanthropies Humanitarian Services online at <https://www.ldspanthropies.org/humanitarian-services> or by sending it to Humanitarian Services, c/o LDS Philanthropies, 1450 N. University Ave., Provo, UT 84604.

UPCOMING SERVICES
