OBITUARIES

Barbara R. Ackerman

Hermiston
January 19, 1946 - November 24, 2018

Barbara R. Ackerman of Hermiston was born January 19, 1946, in La Grande, Oregon, the youngest of 16 children born to John and Treasa DeFries. She passed away in Hermiston on Saturday, November 24, 2018, at the age of 72.

Barbara moved with her family from La Grande to Hermiston in the early 1950s. She attended school in Hermiston and graduated from Hermiston High School in the class of 1964. After high school, she married Leonard Ackerman on September 9, 1964, in Lewiston, Idaho. The couple made their home in Hermiston where she has resided since.

Barbara’s interests included her family, quilting and cooking. She is survived by her husband of 54 years, Leonard; children Kathy Ackerman, Wade Ackerman and Angie Ackerman; two granddaughters, Britney and Lauren Ackerman; and numerous siblings and extended family members. She was preceded in death by her daughter, Brenda.

A funeral service will be held at 11:00 a.m. Friday, November 30, 2018, at Living Faith Church, 1611 Diagonal Blvd., Hermiston, Ore. Burial will follow in Hermiston Cemetery.

Family suggest memorial donations be made to Living Faith Church.

Burns Mortuary of Hermiston is in care of arrangements.

Ackerman

Norma Louise Michael

Pendleton
July 2, 1925 - November 23, 2018

Norma Louise Michael passed away peacefully on November 23, 2018, with family by her side. She was born in the small town of Ellston, Iowa, to Frank and Mary Ellen Gray on July 2, 1925, so close to the Fourth of July, that we felt she was always our “Sparkler.”

Norma graduated from Ellston High School in 1943 with honors. She was active in school activities, played basketball and the coronet in the band. She received her associate’s degree in business while in college in Des Moines, Iowa. She met her future husband, Frederick Wallace Michael from Pilot Rock, Oregon, through correspondence while he was serving in World War II, and met him face-to-face for the first time while he was on leave in St. Louis, Mo. Norma and her mother, Mary, moved to Pendleton to be near Norma’s sister who lived in Pilot Rock, and no doubt be closer to that soldier too. During the war, Norma worked at the Umatilla Army Depot. After the war, Norma and Wallace married in 1946, resided in Pendleton and raised four children, Jim, Ann, Pam and Jeff.

She started a career in bookkeeping at Hamley’s Western Wear, then for several years while her young children were in grade school she did bookkeeping for Stewart’s Grocery store in Sherwood Heights. A talented seamstress, she also made her children’s clothes, including coats and western wear, decorated their home with her cross stitch, crochet and quilting skills. She was a marvelous cook and prepared wonderful meals. Later she spent several years as a bookkeeper for Ford’s Tire Service. After Ford’s closed, she went to work for the Education Service District (ESD). She loved her job and the people she worked with. After retirement, she volunteered at the Pendleton Bargain Counter for many years.

She loved her bridge clubs, and was still playing with gusto. She had so many close friends and a group that traveled and played together that called themselves the OBBC (Old Broads Birthday Club). For the past three years, she has resided in a duplex at Sunridge Retirement Center. She genuinely liked living there and grew close to the staff and residents. For years she has been making elaborate, beautiful Christmas stockings for her children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren. We shall always treasure her artwork as we treasure the gift of her.

Norma was preceded in death by her parents, sisters Doris Vance and Pauline Wood, and her husband Wallace of 68 years. She is survived by her children James Michael (Cathy) of Hermiston, Ann Schiene of Spokane, Wash., Pamela Harris (Bill) of Albany, Ore., and Jeff Michael of Hermiston; stepdaughter Sonya Reedy of Honolulu, Hawaii; nine grandchildren; and 20 great-grandchildren.

We know you are “sparkling” in heaven as you did on earth.

A memorial service will be held at 2:00 p.m. on Saturday, December 1, 2018, at Pendleton Pioneer Chapel, Folsom-Bishop.

Jon ‘Nick’ McLachlan

Boardman
November 10, 1943 - November 23, 2018

Jon “Nick” McLachlan of Boardman was born November 10, 1943, in Salem, Oregon, the son of John and Mary (Eaton) McLachlan. He passed away in Richland, Wash., on Friday, November 23, 2018, at the age of 75.

Nick grew up and attended school in Portland, graduating from Benson Tech High School. After high school, he began working in the shipyards which was the start of his career with the Boilermaker’s Union. In the early 1980s he worked a job in Boardman on the coal fire plant, which led to his moving to Boardman in 1985. He worked as a welder with the Boilermaker’s Union until retiring in 2015.

Nick enjoyed hunting and fishing, looking after his cows and his home, visiting with his neighbors, and was a past member of the Eagles Lodge in Hermiston.

Nick married Susan Stanhope in Boardman on October 16, 2013.

He is survived by his wife, Susan; children Todd, Nick, Johnny, Bryan, Dee and Dawn; several grandchildren and one great-grandchild; and sister Debbie.

A graveside service will be held at 1:00 p.m. on Thursday, November 29, 2018, at Riverview Cemetery near Boardman. Burns Mortuary of Hermiston is in care of final arrangements.

Family suggest memorial donations to the Morrow County FFA in his memory.

Lillian Minnie (Shock) Spino

Wyatuks

Mission
January 9, 1928 - November 24, 2018

Lillian Minnie (Shock) Spino, Tribal name Wyatuks, fulfilled the Creator’s expectations and began her spirit journey on November 24, 2018. Joyce Kahlamet, Betty Pierre, Julie Jim, Victor and Lilly Andy provided Shaker services for her transition on November 24. Thomas, Ernestine and Ernest Morning Owl provided Washat services for her family at her home on November 24 and 25, 2018.

Dressing ceremony will be provided by Irma Totus and Mildred Quae-mpts on Tuesday, November 27, 2018, at 10 a.m. at tribal longhouse. A short Shaker service will be provided prior to the overnight Washat services on November 27; services will be officiated by Thomas Morning Owl, Damien Totus and Armand Minthorn. Sunrise burial will follow on Wednesday, November 28 at Spino Addition Old Agency Cemetery.

Lillian was born January 9, 1928, at Brownstown, Washington, to Jim and Mary Shock. She grew up at the White Swan family ranch and also Priest Rapids, Washington. Lillian was a member of the Confederated Tribes of the Umatilla Indian Reservation, also a descendant of Yakama Nation and Wanapum bands, Nez Perce and Klamath Tribes.

Lillian Shock and Lewis Spino were married by Tribal custom on July 12, 1948. They lived at the Spino homestead at McKay Creek, Oregon. They later moved to Adams, Oregon, where she was a homemaker and raised her nine children. Lewis and Lillian also opened their home to any children in need.

Lillian was a member of the Confederated Tribes of the Umatilla Indian Reservation and lived in Mission, Oregon. She was an active member of the Umatilla Tribal Community, and instrumental in developing the Umatilla Tribal Housing. She also was an active member of the George St. Dennis Post #140 American Legion Auxiliary. Education was important to her and she served on the Johnson O’ Malley parent committee. She was actively involved in the design and development of the CTUIR longhouse where she and Lewis were lifetime members. Lillian was also a lifetime member of the Independent Shaker Church in White Swan, Washington. She was not a stranger to and held leadership roles in the White Swan, Toppenish, Satus, Wapato, Simnasho, Celilo, Priest Rapids and Warm Springs longhouses.

She attended Chemewa Indian Boarding School in Salem, Oregon, then later at Brownstown Elementary. She attended Blue Mountain College in 1967 to 1968 and received her GED and some college credit. Employment included field worker and truck driver for Barnett and Rugg. She retired from Lamb Weston.

She was highly respected by the community for her knowledge, storytelling, and strength. Very active in her tribal customs, she was an accomplished traditional dancer, horsewoman, seamstress, artist and tentmaker, and loved to bead, weave and crochet. She also traveled throughout the Northwest to gather traditional foods and medicines, and willingly shared her knowledge. She gifted young food gathers with a basket hat and wapus.

Survivors include Luella (Dean) Azule of Salem, Lawrence (Angie) Spino of Warm Springs, Ore., Laura (Dave) Kordatzky of McKay Creek, Ore., Lester Spino, Leona (Greg) Harris and Lenora (Lorenzo) Toledo of Mission, Oregon. She is also survived by sister Marcella Shock Miller of Harrah, Wash., 28 grandchildren and 49 great-grandchildren.

She is preceded in death by husband Lewis Spino; her parents Jim and Mary Shock; brothers Sam and Wesley Shock; sisters Evelyn (Quae-mpts) Andy and Christine (Shock) Billy; daughters Regina Tomaskin and Louise Spino-Paxton; sons Floyd Shock, Leslie Spino and Lowell Spino; grandchildren Steven Azule, Earl Spino and Cheryl Spino-Osborne, nephew Ronald Morning Owl; and great-granddaughter Makaya Kordatzky.

On behalf of her family, we would like to thank everyone for the outpouring of love and support through your words, hugs, actions, deeds, happy memories shared, songs and prayers. May the Creator bless you as well as we have been blessed to have had Lillian in our lives. Her smile was contagious as well as her laughter and generous heart and sense of humor.

Burns Mortuary handled her final arrangements. Sign the online condolence book at www.burnsmortuary.com.
