Tamara was a devoted mother and homemaker. She liked cooking, sewing, crafting and home canning. She was an outstanding cook and worked in the food service industry after her children were grown. Samuel D. McKay

Pendleton
February 24, 1969 - November 19, 2018

Samuel D. McKay, 49, "Yaamash Washasha," born to Sam Willingham and Eileen McKay on February 24, 1969, in Portland, Ore., passed away in his home on November 19, 2018.

During the early '70's, he moved to Pendleton with his family. As a child he was raised by his uncle Jake and Aunt Rubilee Willingham. Throughout his youth, the family held a close bond with each other, going on camping trips to Indian Lake, Starkey and North Fork sometimes for more than a week at a time during the summers. There were many swimming trips taken to Hat Rock State Park.

Sam had many interests. He played baseball as a young man, began learning to cook, and later joined Rhythmic Mode in high school; he had the notoriety of being the first male to join the cheer club, later being joined by other males.

He graduated from Pendleton High School in 1988 and after graduation he went to flight school back east where his goal was to become a flight attendant. Returning home, he was hired at Hanford Nuclear through the CTUIR and worked there for five years. When that job ended he was hired at the CTUIR Department of Natural Resources, where he stayed for over 25 years. During this time Sam was well known to be the coordinator of many staff potlucks, often going to find people to sign up if they hadn't already so there was always plenty of food for events.

Sam's love of family continued and he was very involved with his nieces' and nephews' interests, helping them through sports, and Makayla through her time as Happy Canyon princess.

He is survived by his life partner, Rick Black; his brothers Tony Willingham of Atlanta, Georgia, Daniel Gilchrist of Puyallup, Washington, and Rico McKay of Pendleton, Ore.; sisters Jolynne McKay-Wade of Columbus, Georgia, and Leticia Willingham of Portland, Ore.; and numerous cousins, nieces and nephews.

He was preceded in death by his father and mother, his grandmother Elsie McKay, and his sister Arzine Willingham.

Burns Mortuary of Pendleton was in charge or arrangements. Sign the online guestbook at <http://www.burnsmortuary.com>.

Bettie Lou Roberts

Lebanon, Ore.
August 1, 1942 - November 29, 2018

Bettie Lou Roberts, born August 1, 1942, died November 29, 2018. Bettie passed away at the home of Lonnie and Chloe Tenbusch of Lebanon, Oregon, where she was taken care of by her daughters. Bettie was a hard worker throughout her life. She worked on a couple of dairies in Central Oregon in the 1960s. She then moved to Sweet Home, Ore., to be a stay-at-home mom until her children grew up.

After raising her children she moved to Pendleton and worked as a cook/caregiver in a private home. She eventually went to work for the state of Oregon at the training center where she cared for the mentally disabled clients.

Bettie loved being in the mountains. In her spare time she would go with her long-time boyfriend of over 30 years, Jim Curl, to his cabin where they enjoyed being alone. They would hunt, go fishing, pick mushrooms, ride four-wheelers and just enjoy the peace and quiet together. When she wasn't in the mountains she loved spending time with her grandkids and kids.

She is survived by her six children: Rockie Gilbert of Joplin, Missouri, Zoie Zacharias of Pendleton, Chloe Tenbusch of Lebanon, Oregon, Wendy Fetterhoff of Hermiston, Oregon, Tina Cordell of Elgin, Oregon, and Amber Pryor of Pendleton, Oregon. She is also survived by 18 grandchildren and 30 great-grandchildren.

She was preceded in death by her father, Mitchell Hoffman of Elgin, Oregon; her mother Vera Hoffman of Burns, Oregon; sister Ruby Hoffman of Elgin; and aunts Amy Hoffman and Lucy Hoffman, both of Elgin.

A viewing will take place on Wednesday, December 5, 2018, at Pendleton Pioneer Chapel, Folsom-Bishop from noon until 4:30 p.m. and on Thursday from 9:00 a.m. to 6:30 p.m. A Celebration of Life will held at a future date.
