

PUBLIC SAFETY LOG

WEDNESDAY

2:29 a.m. - Hermiston police received a report of a prowler on West Ridgeway Avenue.
 4:53 a.m. - A Milton-Freewater resident reported someone damaged tires on her vehicle.
 8:01 a.m. - A caller told the Morrow County Sheriff's Office to be on the lookout for a white van heading west from Stanfield because the van's license plate looked like it was cardboard and displayed only "SF." The sheriff's office referred the report to Oregon State Police.
 8:10 a.m. - Staff at Pendleton High School called 911 to report a student overdosed on an unknown substance and was shaking and suffering abdominal pains.
 8:14 a.m. - Hermiston police received a report of someone stabbing a female with a small fork on the 1300 block of Southwest Sixth Street. The victim declined medical help.
 10:17 a.m. - Milton-Freewater took a report for vandalism to the city bus shelter at Northeast Fourth Avenue and Rose Street.
 11:39 a.m. - A woman came to the Hermiston Police Department and reported she may be the victim of a scam.
 11:59 a.m. - A man came to the Hermiston Police Department and reported someone drained all the money from his bank account.
 12:02 p.m. - A 911 caller reported an assault at the Mountain View Apartments, 2410 N.W. Carden Ave., Pendleton. A little more than three hours later, a caller at the complex reported child abuse.
 1:07 p.m. - The Morrow County Sheriff's Office received a report of a Heppner-area resident not paying state income taxes. The case is under investigation.
 2:06 p.m. - The Umatilla County Sheriff's Office received information about an abandoned animal on Northeast Vanarsdale Lane, Hermiston.
 4:10 p.m. - A resident of Umatilla River Road, Hermiston, reported the theft of pop cans.
 5:26 p.m. - A Heppner resident on North Gale Street asked the Morrow County Sheriff's Office to provide extra patrols to keep an eye on his place so nobody takes the large bag of cans he has yet to cash in.
 Not many officers can wait to watch over someone's bag of cans.
 7:56 p.m. - Staff at the Sub Zero Motel, Irrigon, reported the theft of Lottery revenue from the till. Security cameras also recorded the crime.
 8:22 p.m. - Pendleton police took a report for a burglary at Indian Hills Village Apartment, 1335 S.W. Second St., Pendleton.

OBITUARIES

Carol Bendixsen

Hermiston
December 24, 1929 - November 29, 2018

Carol Bendixsen of Hermiston, Oregon, was born on December 24, 1929, in Alberta, Canada. On her own terms and with joyful anticipation of reuniting with the love of her life, family members and close friends, Carol Maughan Bendixsen left this life on November 29, just a few weeks shy of her 89th birthday. Carol had an incorrigible zest for life accompanied by a deep desire to please those she loved. She possessed immense artistic ability and an eye for the beauty of nature. Significantly, she loved to laugh and enjoyed stimulating conversation. In her last days, it was obvious that her lack of ability to converse and express her feelings was truly her biggest frustration. Carol grew up in Pocatello, Idaho, with her parents, a sister and two handsome brothers. She was a gifted dancer and prided herself on the title of Jitterbug Champion in high school. While attending BYU, she met a wonderful man for whom she made her famous fudge on their very first date. The rest is history. Richard Bendixsen was purely and completely smitten with this tiny 5'2" firecracker. In September 1950 in the Idaho Falls Temple, they began building a beautiful life together. Over time the family grew to five children, 20 grandchildren and 60 great-grandchildren ... undoubtedly the focus of Carol's mortal existence and biggest source of joy. Throughout her life, nothing brought her more giggles and smiles like visits from her grandkids and great-grandchildren. Carol had a magnetic personality and an appreciation for things done well. She made her home a place of artistic expression that included an array of her beautiful oil paintings, her colorful and tasteful decorating and endless photographs of her family. When you came to visit her, there was always a homemade treat and a cold drink to welcome you. It was as if she knew you were coming! Cooking for her family and friends was an expression of her love for others. She did it better than anyone we know. Her love of Jesus Christ and her testimony of Him fueled Carol throughout her life. Her embrace of the teachings of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints comforted her and gave her purpose. Her desire and ability to serve others came naturally, particularly helping those who were downtrodden or overburdened. Lifting and teaching those around her was her calling in life and one she seemingly mastered. While our hearts ache at the monumental loss, those who loved her are relieved that she is no longer suffering. Carol is preceded in death by her devoted husband, Richard Bendixsen; her parents, Morgan and Eleanor; her sister Helen; and her brothers Fred and Thomas, along with many loved nieces and nephews. She is survived by her five children Sheila Reynolds (Garry), Kristine Bennett (Jon), Sue Theissen (Donna), Kurt Bendixsen (Susie), and Jenny Bauer (Eric), their children and grandchildren.

A funeral service will be held on Saturday, December 15, 2018, at 10 a.m. at the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints Stake Center, 1035 S.E. Ninth St., Hermiston, OR 97838. Burial will follow at the Hermiston Cemetery, Hermiston, Oregon. Please leave an online condolence for Carol's family at burnsmortuaryhermiston.com Burns Mortuary of Hermiston, Oregon, is in care of arrangements.

Funeral train takes Bush to final resting place

SPRING, Texas (AP) — The locomotive was painted to resemble Air Force One, but George H.W. Bush joked that if it had been around during his presidency, he may have preferred to ride the rails rather than take to the skies. "I might have left Air Force One behind," Bush quipped during the 2005 unveiling of 4141, a blue and gray locomotive commissioned in honor of the 41st president and unveiled at Texas A&M University.

On Thursday, that same 4,300-horsepower machine left a suburban Houston railyard loaded with Bush's casket for his final journey after almost a week of ceremonies in Washington and Texas. The train then embarked on a slow roll to his presidential library in College Station, passing thousands of people who stood along the tracks. Many of them held up their phones for pictures and watched from highway overpasses.

One of the first small towns to greet the train was Pinehurst, where Andy Gordon took his 6-year-old daughter, Addison, out of school so she and her 3-year-old sister, Ashtyn, could witness the moment firsthand.

"Hopefully, my children will remember the significance and the meaning of today," said Gordon, 38. In Addison's hand were two small American flags. At one point, state troopers hovering in a helicopter ordered people to get off the tracks as the train approached. Some onlookers left coins on the tracks to be flattened into keepsakes. More than two hours after departing, the train rolled to a stop in College Station, where Bush was to be laid to rest at a private ceremony next to his wife, Barbara, who died in April, and his daughter Robin, who died at age 3 in 1953. Family members, including former President George W. Bush, were also aboard the 12-car train that was greeted by student cadets and mourners upon arriving at Texas A&M University.

The train's sixth car, a converted baggage hauler called "Council Bluffs," was fitted with transparent sides to allow the mourners lining the tracks views of Bush's flag-draped coffin.
