Pirates finish second at Riverside Rumble

By ANNIE FOWLER East Oregonian

Riverside finished second at the Riverside Rumble on Dec. 22, winning three of four pool play matches to reach the championship match.

The Pirates lost a 55-18 match to La Grande in the finals.

"I didn't really expect us to win any duals due to injuries and kids on vacation, making us give up seven weights," Riverside coach Richard Rockwell said. "Our kids came out strong in the matches they competed at, including a very tough La Grande team. Jacob Harris and Ethan Snyder both beat state-experienced wrestlers in our dual against La Grande, helping us win four of six matches actually competed."

In pool play, the Pirates tied Hanford 36-36, but won on criteria. They then beat Mac-Hi 32-30, Heppner 36-30, and then lost a 40-24 match to Grant Union.

On the day, Abraham Silva went 5-0 at 120 pounds, Christian Reyes was 5-0 at 132, Snyder 5-0 at 138, Harris 4-1 at 145, Fernando Ortega 4-1 at 126, and Jose Puerta 3-2 at 152.

Freshman guard Scooty Gilbert had a game-high 21 points Thursday night as Trinity Lutheran (7-3) beat the host Knights 61-39 in the Irrigon Invite.

"They were pretty good," Irrigon coach Davie Salas said of the Saints, a Class 1A team from Bend. "They ran their offense well and crashed the glass. We came out flat and had no energy."

Keith Fleming led the Knights (6-6) with 16 points, with Lino Covarrubia and Caleb Adams adding six points each.

Irrigon will play Tri-Cities Prep at 7:30 p.m. Friday. MAC-HI 63, LIBERTY CHRISTIAN 41 — The Pioneers kicked off the Irrigon Invite with a win over the Patriots on Thursday. Alexis Pio, who was perfect from the field. led the way for Mac-Hi with 24 points. Dareagan Stephens added 16 points.

Noah Hayden and Braden Long each had 10 points for Liberty Christian.

Mac-Hi (8-3) closes the invite against Trinity Lutheran on Friday.

a "proud coach."

"La Salle is one of the best teams in Oregon," Porter said. "But I was really happy with the way we played. We ran our defense really well, and our offense got a few things going against them in the second half.'

La Salle led by only 15 points at halftime, but tore away in the second half, outscoring Pendleton 16-11 in the third quarter and 16-2 in the fourth.

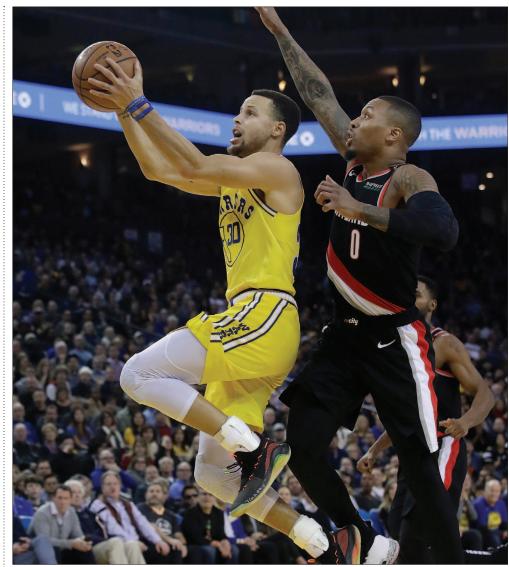

"They made a lot of big shots, but we also didn't give them any easy ones,' Porter said.

Natalie Neveau led the Bucks with nine points and seven rebounds — five of which were offensive.

"She (Neveau) played a pretty darn good game," Porter said. "She's an undersized player in the post (5-foot-6), and she went up against a much taller team. She held her own."

Pendleton fell to 3-6 after the Thursday night loss. They'll resume the Hoopfest on Friday in a game against Summit.

Portland: Lillard's 3-pointer in OT lifts Blazers over Warriors

"Wouldn't have been mad at all at a Seth game winner.'

Lillard shot 7 for 20 with friends and family cheering him in the Blazers' final scheduled trip to Oracle Arena before the Warriors move to San Francisco next season

Stephen Curry made a 3-pointer with 10:46 to play in regulation, then his little brother Seth rattled off 11 in a row with three consecutive 3s.

Klay Thompson's shooting struggles continued. He went 6 for 19 and was just 2 of 9 on 3-point tries on the way to 15 points. He made a 3 late in the third and was fouled, drawing a rousing ovation, then missed the free throw.

Curry's 33-footer with 8:42 left in the third on a pass from Draymond Green got Golden State within two, then Curry found Green for a tying layup the next time down to make it 55-all.

A series of silly mistakes followed: Thompson made a steal and threw it toward midcourt and Green couldn't keep the ball from going over the line for a backcourt violation, as Portland regained possession. Then, Green clanked a onehanded dunk try off the back of the rim. This after he had earlier thrown a pass off Thompson's head.

The Warriors missed nine of their initial 11 free throws and finished an uncharacteristic 6 for 15 at the line.

Both teams were trying to rebound from embarrassing Christmas losses two days earlier in which the 3-point shooting was dismal: Golden State following that flop to the Lakers at home and the Blazers a 117-96 defeat at Utah.
