

McCollum helps Blazers rout Hornets in 127-96 win

By ANNE M. PETERSON
Associated Press

PORTLAND — CJ McCollum had 30 points and Damian Lillard scored 20 before resting in the fourth quarter, and the Portland Trail Blazers routed the Charlotte Hornets 127-96 on Friday night.

Portland has won four straight and six of seven overall. It improved to 17-7 at home, tied for best in the Western Conference.

The victory also extended the Blazers' winning streak over the Hornets in Portland to 11 straight games. Charlotte hasn't won in Portland since 2008.

Kemba Walker had 18 points for the Hornets, who fell to 5-14 on the road this season in the fourth of a five-game trip.

Portland center Jusuf Nurkic had 11 points, 11 rebounds and tied career highs with eight assists and six blocks before he also went to the bench early in the fourth. On a tear lately, the Bosnian big man averaged 21.4 points and 11.4 rebounds over the previous eight games.

"The big fella's been awesome," McCollum said.

Portland also got another solid performance from its reserves. Seth Curry's 3-pointer extended Portland's lead to 50-36. Jake Layman's alley-oop dunk from Lillard put the Blazers up 61-42.

Portland's backups have accounted for at least 50 points in six games this season, all Blazers wins. They had 48 points against the Hornets, but got extra work because the starters were rested.

Sabally scores 26 as No. 5 Oregon routs USC 93-53

LOS ANGELES — Satou Sabally scored 26 points and No. 5 Oregon won its second straight Pac-12 game by 40 points, routing USC 93-53 on Friday night.

Sabally was a point away from tying her career high, which she set earlier this season against UC Irvine. The sophomore forward scored nine of the Ducks' first 11 points and Oregon never trailed. The Ducks led by as many as 42 late in the fourth quarter.

Sabrina Ionescu added 17 points, Taylor Chavez 14 and Ruthy Hebard 12 for Oregon (14-1, 3-0 Pac-12), which won its seventh straight. The 40-point victory tied for the third-largest win by the Ducks in conference play, equaling the 98-58 victory they had last Sunday against Washington State.

Aliyah Mazyck led USC (10-5, 0-4) with 16 points and Ja'Tavia Tapley added 13. Mariya Moore, who scored a career high 36 points in last Sunday's loss at California, had 11 points.

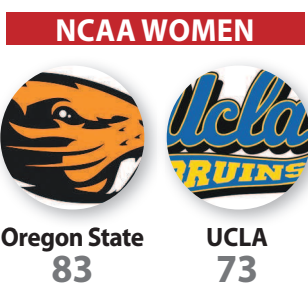

The game was tied at 2 when the Ducks took control with a 9-1 run. Oregon was 4 of 6 from the field while the Trojans were 0 of 7, including missing all four from beyond the arc.

The Ducks were up 21-9 at the end of the first quarter and had a 41-19 lead at halftime. Oregon was 16 of 32 from the field in the first half and scored 23 points off 15 turnovers by the Trojans, who made just 4 of 21 from the field in the first 20 minutes.

No. 10 Oregon State rallies to defeat UCLA 83-73

By BETH HARRIS
Associated Press

LOS ANGELES — Oregon State had plenty of bad memories at Pauley Pavilion, having lost three in a row by an average of 21.7 points.

Especially irksome was last year's 35-point loss to UCLA.

The 10th-ranked Beavers erased all that on Friday night, pulling away in the fourth quarter for an 83-73 victory.

"To put the memories of last year, which was not a fun experience, behind us was great," Oregon State coach Scott Rueck said.

Destiny Slocum scored 22 points and Mikayla Pivec added 21 for the Beavers (13-2, 3-0 Pac-12), who won their fifth in a row. They never trailed in the third and fourth quarters, but UCLA made it close.

The Bruins (9-7, 2-2) got within three points once in the third and twice in the fourth.

The Beavers shot 73 percent in the fourth, making 8 of 11 shots.

"Our execution was really, really good," Slocum said. "There was a level defensively and offensively that we reached and see ourselves carrying throughout the season."

Meatless Wednesday: Flavortown Market goes to the greens and beans

By Andrew Warren
TV Media

In the first round of the competition, host Guy Fieri gives the competing chefs a list of ingredients that their dishes must feature. Then, in the second round, the chefs spin a wheel that randomly gives each of them a meat dish that they must make vegetarian. Finally, Guy gets tricky in the final round and asks each chef to make a dish using the ingredients needed to make their guilty pleasure dishes.

"Guy's Grocery Games" is similar to other cooking competition shows, with a chef getting the as after each round since the judges have had a chance to taste and evaluate all of the dishes. The contest is held inside of a restaurant, and the competitors are required to "shop" for their own ingredients from the store's shelves, and all sorts of twists tie into the unique milieu.

The judges that Guy has brought in to taste this week's meatless meals are a who's who of Food Network celebrity chefs. There's a pair of "Food Network Star" winners in Damiana Phily ("Southern at Heart") and Araceli Segura ("Aarti Party"), along with frequent judge and "Top Chef All-Stars" winner Richard Blais.

Veggies don't have to be boring, and with those three discerning judges ready to taste everything on the plate, the contestants in this week's "Guy's Grocery Games" have to pack as much punch into their dishes as they can.
