

PUBLIC SAFETY

WEDNESDAY

7:50 a.m. — Pendleton police took a report for a burglary at West-ern States Equipment Co., 607 Airport Road.
 9:15 a.m. — Snow and ice blocked one entrance/exit at the Green Acres RV Park, 80542 Paterson Ferry Road, Irrigon, leaving only one way in and out, which violated the fire code.
 11:15 a.m. — A caller on Southeast Sixth Street, Hermiston, reported someone left a fake $100 bill under the windshield wiper of her vehicle.
 12:23 p.m. — Law enforcement responded to a domestic disturbance in the back parking lot at the Pilot Travel Center, 2115 Highway 395, Stanfield.
 12:55 p.m. — Hermiston police received a report of a young boy alone in a vehicle for more than 30 minutes on West Elm Avenue.
 2:03 p.m. — A caller told Hermiston police her grandmother was kicking her out of the apartment and will not let her collect her belongings. Police determined this was a civil problem.
 2:08 p.m. — A caller told the Morrow County Sheriff's Office she is trying to get her and her fiance's possessions from her aunt and uncle in Heppner, but they won't allow them to. She said the aunt and uncle would put the items on the curb but still would not allow them to take the stuff. She asked the sheriff's office for options.
 2:24 p.m. — A caller asked Hermiston police to check on a Rottweiler that has been chained in the back yard of a home on West Laird Avenue during the length of the cold spell without food, water or shelter.
 6:08 p.m. — Pilot Rock police received a report of gunshots on Southwest Birch and Second streets. Accounts on social media reported people were setting off fireworks.
 6:21 p.m. — A Heppner man reported he is having on-going alterca-tions with a neighbor at Black Mountain Lane and Willow Creek Road, and the neighbor threatened him, yelled obscenities and wanted him to get out of his vehicle and "settle the issue."
 7:14 p.m. — Boardman fire and other emergency services responded to Wagon Wheel Loop, Irrigon, for a burning car that caught a nearby single-wide trailer on fire. No one was in the home at the time of the fire, according to a press release from the Morrow County Sher-iff's Office, and there were no injuries.
 After an investigation, Joseph Palmer, 20 from Irrigon and Echo, was arrested by the sheriff's office and charged with reckless burning and criminal mischief.
 7:14 p.m. — A 911 caller reported criminal mischief at the Church of Christ on Northwest 12th Street, Pendleton.
 9:12 p.m. — Mosa, the bar at 138 Main St., Pendleton, was the scene of another fight. Police arrested at least two people for misdemeanor disorderly conduct.

ARRESTS, CITATIONS

Wednesday

•Oregon State Police cited Howard Lee Gonzalez, 49, of Dayton, Washington, for false swearing, a misdemeanor, while trying to purchase a gun at Smitty's Ace Outpost, 1825 N. First St., Hermiston.
 •Hermiston police arrested Shane Verhey Springer, 30, of Hermiston, for first-degree criminal mischief, a felony, and disorderly conduct and trespass, misdemeanors.
 Hermiston police Lt. Randy Studebaker reported Springer, came into the police department at 8:45 p.m. to turn himself in on a warrant. But there were no warrants for his arrest, and police were not suspecting in of other crimes, so he left the station.
 The police department at about 10:15 p.m. received a call that somebody broke a window out of a business in the 1300 block of North First Street. Witnesses gave a description of the suspect and said he was leaving the area.
 Officers found Springer, who matched the description, arrested him and booked him into the Umatilla County Jail, Pendleton.
 Studebaker also reported Springer has more than 30 local arrests and has received dozens of citations.
 "Witnesses provide vital information in many of our cases," accord-ing to Studebaker. "In this circumstance, they provided timely informa-tion to dispatch that was immediately relayed to our officers. If you wit-ness a crime or suspicious activity, please call us right away. You can call 911 or the non-emergency number, 541-567-5519, and press the option for dispatch."

OBITUARIES

Kelly Lynn Ball

Everett, Washington
 April 3, 1957 — Feb. 9, 2019

Ball

Kelly Lynn Ball passed away on Feb. 9, 2019, at Ever-green Hospice in Kirkland, Washington, after a long, hard-fought battle against metastatic breast cancer.

She was born on April 3, 1957, in Seattle, Washington, to James and Colleen (O'Brien) Hoiem (both of whom she is sur-vised by). Kelly was the oldest of four children. She was preceded in death by her sister, Robin Hoiem, and is survived by brother Scott (Sophana) Connelly, and sister Pandi (Troy) Bartley.

Kelly graduated from Lin-coln High School in Seattle, Washington, in 1975. During her teenage years she volun-teered as a candy striper at Ballard Hospital, she deliv-ered newspapers in her neigh-borhood, worked at McDon-ald's and, after graduation, worked at a nursing home in Seattle, as a caregiver — a job she loved very much and always remembered fondly. She then began a career in banking, at Rainier Bank, in Seattle, before starting a fam-ily and her ultimate career as a wife, mother, home-maker, and DIY craft genius extraordinaire!!

On July 9, 1977, just weeks after meeting Kenneth Ball, Kelly married him ... her soulmate ... and the two remain deeply in love. She passed away on their 41-year, 7-month anniversary, with him at her side.

Together, they have three children and four grandchil-dren: daughter Shauna (Chris) Plante, and their children, Clara and Diego; daughter, Jeana Ball, and her daugh-ter, Gabriella; and son, Brian (Jennifer) Ball, and their son, Adrian.

Kelly and Kenny were amazing, loving foster par-ents to many children from a variety of backgrounds and with various learning, mental and mobility disabilities. And, as their fostering years came to an end, Kelly returned to school to become a doula to continue her love of caregiv-ing; she assisted many women in delivering their babies in safe, warm, and loving envi-ronments. She even became an ordained minister and has officiated the weddings that precede those births!

Also on her "caregiving resume" is much time spent volunteering for the Red Cross, leading the youth vol-unteer group, and deploy-ing to disasters to help those in need, including a 3-week mission to New York after 9/11 — work that always remained very dear to her heart. She even led an adop-tion support group through her church, creating wonder-ful welcome home experiences for families who had just adopted a child.

Kelly had the talent, vision, and drive to start businesses before they became popular or known to the rest of the world. She was Martha before Martha was known — she could plan a party, deco-urate a cake, arrange flowers and create anything the mind could imagine (although not without a few arguments with a sewing machine or two).

She opened three busi-nesses with constant encour-agement, support and assis-tance from Kenny. They opened a gift store in Ken-newick, Washington, (Some-thing Special) that included a year-round Christmas room, themed gift baskets, and rental booths for crafters to sell their creations to the public. When they moved to the Pacific Northwest, they opened a gift shop (My Secret Garden) in a rustic cabin next to a resort on the Hood Canal. Patrons could do a little shopping, grab an ice-cream cone and have an artist draw their portrait while they sat on the porch. She even started an online jewelry busi-ness in the earlier online days (Grandma's Attic), and did so well, she couldn't keep up with the demand.

Kelly was a soft spoken, patient, kind, loving, giving, and honest person with innu-merable talents that she was always eager to share. Her presence is greatly missed and her absence leaves immense sorrow in the hearts of those who knew her.

A celebration of life ser-vice will be held on Sunday, February 24, 2019, at 1 p.m. at Burns Mortuary Chapel, Hermiston, Oregon. A family burial will be at Desert Lawn Memorial Cemetery, Irrigon, Oregon.

Please share online con-dolences with Kelly's family at burnsmortuaryhermiston.com

Burns Mortuary of Herm-iston, Oregon is in care of arrangements.
