Laurel Joyce Madsen

La Grande
August 22, 1931 — February 15, 2019

Laurel Joyce Madsen, nothing compared to the joy of being around her family. She relished gatherings and traditional holidays with family and friends. In addition to her children she mothered ball players of all ages. She was the faithful coach's wife, logging hundreds of hours on benches around the state and preparing countless team meals at their home. Joyce and Don helped to instill knowledge, values and character in so many young children and adults through parenting, teaching and coaching with compassion and love.

Madsen

Known by Joyce, she was raised and attended school in Star Valley, Wyoming, and later in Layton, Utah. She attended Davis High School in Bountiful where she was a member of the Pro Schola club and participated in other social activities. While attending Davis High she met the love of her life, Donald B. Madsen, and they were united in marriage on June 30, 1950, in the Salt Lake City Temple.

She worked a variety of jobs over the next couple of years, including being a telephone operator, while Don pursued his education in Ogden, Utah, and later in Caldwell, Idaho. While in Caldwell, Joyce gave birth to their first son, Michael. They moved several more times living in Parma, Idaho, and Dayville, Ore., before settling in Hermiston in 1956. In Hermiston she gave birth to their second son, Mark.

It was there that Joyce decided to return to college to become a teacher. She commuted to Pendleton for two years and then later to La Grande for two years in pursuit of her degree. She went on to teach at Sunset Elementary in Hermiston for the next 25 years. Joyce retired in 1995, but still loved the students in the classroom and enjoyed substituting for several more years.

She had many hobbies including cooking, baking, scrapbooking and gardening. For each of these activities she had her favorite tools: butter, endless photos and Miracle-Gro. While she enjoyed these activities,
