

OBITUARIES

Friedrich 'Fritz' von Boetticher Miller, M.D.

Pendleton

February 25, 1938 — February 14, 2019

Friedrich (Fritz) von Boetticher Miller was born February 25, 1938, in Buffalo, New York, and died February 14, 2019, in Pendleton, Oregon.

Fritz was one of six children. He is survived by his sister Heidi Gross and brother Ted Miller. His brothers David Miller and Edward Miller and sister Georgia Fink have passed away.

His parents were both physicians. His father, David K. Miller, and his mother, Adelheid von Boetticher, met during their early career in the medical field. His mother was a physician in Germany and became a social worker after she came to the United States.

Fritz graduated high school in Buffalo, New York, in 1956. He attended Cornell University and the University of Buffalo where he completed medical school. He was a merit scholar. Following completion of medical school, he completed a residency in pediatrics at Children's Hospital in Cincinnati, Ohio, and received board certification.

Fritz served in the United States Army. In Vietnam, he served as a physician in a prisoner of war camp and also worked at a Catholic hospital. He received an honorable discharge from the military. Later he spent time in Haiti as a volunteer at a children's hospital.

While in Salem, Oregon, Fritz developed an interest in psychiatry and did volunteer work providing mental health services. Fritz worked as a physician on the staff of Eastern Oregon Psychiatric Center (EOPC) beginning in 1979. He retired after 21 years of service at EOPC.

Fritz and his first wife Eleanor had two children, Elizabeth Tardif and Sarah Smith, and four grandsons. His second wife was Marilyn Howell. Fritz married Jackie Smith, the love of his life, in 1997. He met Jackie while working at EOPC.

After retirement, Fritz participated in many activities in the Pendleton area. He was active in the Episcopal Church. He studied the Education for Ministry Course through the University of the South in Sewanee, Tenn., a program designed to prepare people for personal ministry. He served as a volunteer for Good Samaritan Ministries. He became credentialed as a minister from the Universal Life Church, performing several weddings for friends and associates.

He was active in 12-step programs, programs at the Roundup Athletic Club, including yoga, Zumba, Tai Chi, and attended classes at Wellness Wave.

During 22 years of marriage, Fritz and Jackie frequently traveled to Wisconsin. They stayed at Jackie's homestead and visited her mother and relatives there. They also traveled to Hawaii, China, the Caribbean, and Mexico.

Throughout his life, Fritz was charitable and helpful to many people, with a special interest in folks who were having hard times such as experiencing mental or emotional problems, substance abuse issues or recovering from various traumas in their lives. Fritz was well-known for being able to develop rapport with many people. We will all miss this effervescent, intelligent, and passionate man.

Donations in memory of Dr. Miller may be to Good Samaritan Ministries, c/o Burns Mortuary of Pendleton, P.O. Box 489, Pendleton, OR 97801.

A memorial service is scheduled for March 9, 2019, Saturday, at 11 a.m. at the Episcopal Church of the Redeemer in Pendleton.

Robert L. 'Bob' Hargett

Pendleton

September 15, 1924 — February 17, 2019

Robert L. (Bob) Hargett passed away Sunday morning at the age of 94. Bob was born September 15, 1924, in Pendleton, the third of four children to Thad and Murrel Hargett.

He attended Holdman Grade School and high school in Helix. Following graduation he worked for Standard Oil and in 1944 joined the Navy. After returning from the Navy he made his home in Pendleton, married Josephine Price in 1948, and together they raised her son Terry.

He was in the oil delivery business for many years, ultimately owning his own Union Oil plant. He was highly respected by his clients, as well as all who he had contact with.

Bob enjoyed years on a bowling league, then after retirement became an avid golfer, playing with his buddies at Echo every week, and achieving that coveted reward in golf, a hole in one.

In addition to his work and hobbies, he and Jo were the ultimate devoted grandparents, giving of their love, time and resources to ensure that all was well with each and every one.

The Sun Ridge retirement center has been his home for the last four years, where he remained active walking and participating in the activities available.

Bob was preceded in death by his wife of 66 years, his brother Bud Hargett, sister Marge Dorran, a grandson and a great-grandson.

He is survived by sister, Helen Courtright; son Terry Farrow (Susan); grandchildren Theresa Farrow Sherbine (Rocky), Jeff Farrow, Jubal Farrow, Tara Farrow Van Pelt (Arthur) and Justin Farrow; great- and great-great-grandchildren; and multiple nieces and nephews including Janet Wood, who was an integral person in caring for him over these last years.

A graveside service and gathering will be held in the spring.

Online condolences may be sent to www.pioneer-chapel.com.

Craig C. Rosenberg

Redmond

March 8, 1954 — February 15, 2019

Craig C. Rosenberg, 64, of Redmond, Oregon, passed away at home February 15, 2019. Craig was born in Pendleton, Oregon, on March 8, 1954.

His parents were Jim and Delpha (Peterson) Rosenberg.

Surviving are siblings Mark Rosenberg, Gayle Rosenberg and twin brother Chris Rosenberg, all of Pendleton, Oregon. Also surviving Craig is his long-time companion of 39 years, Ted J. Williams, at their home in Redmond.

Graduating from Pendleton High School in 1972, Craig went on to the University of Oregon receiving a Bachelor of Science in sociology in 1976. He began a career in juvenile justice for Umatilla County.

Moving to Central Oregon in 1987, Craig started a lawn care business in the Redmond-Terrebonne area and was employed by Mt. Bachelor as a lift operator for 20 seasons. Craig retired in 2015.

Craig enjoyed the outdoors, sharing it throughout his life with friends and many dogs: Frank, Nathan, Jim Bob, Billy Bob, Tipper and most of all Bobo. Craig loved to hike, from the hills around Eugene to the Blue Mountains to views like our own Steelhead Falls. A fan of Duck football, he attended several bowl games. Trips to Costa Rica and Kauai were journeys he held dear.

Remembrances can be made to Brightside Animal Shelter, Redmond, Oregon. Memorial to be held at a later date. Condolences to Williams/Rosenberg, P.O. Box 239, Terrebonne, OR 97760.
