

James 'Terry' Lawhead

Pendleton
March 10, 1950 — March 24, 2019

James "Terry" Lawhead was born March 10, 1950, in Pendleton, Ore., to Bonda (Peterson) Lawhead and James Leonard Lawhead, who preceded him in death. He passed away Sunday, March 24, 2019.

He is survived by his sister Sonja Lawhead Jensen, brother Roger Lawhead, daughters Dawn Alderman, Trista Still and Chelsi Cate, as well as eight grandchildren and numerous close relatives.

Terry was a logger and a mechanic. He also worked as a truck driver and mechanic on the building of the Alaskan Pipeline. Terry was a great storyteller and loved to be in the woods. He enjoyed hunting and camping with friends and family. Terry also had a great love for animals, especially dogs, which he often trained to do many tricks. He was a stranger to no one and a great friend to many, and will be greatly missed.

Memorial service will be held at the Life Church of Pilot Rock, 222 S.W. Third St., Pilot Rock, OR 97868, on Saturday March 30 at 1:00 p.m.

No formal wear, family plans to wear flannel and jeans style attire.

Service will be followed by a dessert potluck at the same location.

Georgia Marie Ashworth

Milton-Freewater
February 4, 1932 — March 11, 2019

Georgia Marie Ashworth was born on the Oregon side of Stateline in her parents' home on February 4, 1932. She died in her home on March 11, 2019.

Her parents were Harrison Gillespie and Marie Ferguson Handley. Georgia attended school in Weston, Oregon, where she was involved in many clubs and activities and graduated in 1950. She soon married David Bonifer and began raising her family of four boys.

Georgia worked numerous jobs in the area from fruit picking, cleaning houses and later as the bookkeeper for the city of Milton-Freewater. Most recently, Georgia was the treasurer for Daughters of the Nile, a member of the Jolly Circle and was a regular attendee of the Grace Presbyterian Church in Milton-Freewater.

She found joy in crossword puzzles, crochet and traveling across North America to see the world and visit family.

Family was very important to Georgia. She would often write letters and send care packages to far away grandchildren, video calls with great-grandchildren and taking the local family out for meals.

She was preceded in death by her late husbands David Bonifer, Lou Harder and Joe Ashworth; sister Carolyn Garner; mother and father; and son Rick Bonifer. Georgia is survived by her brother Harrison (Janice) Handley; sisters Virginia (JT) Casbeer and Lahoma Horn; sons Rodney, Randy and Roger Bonifer; and many beloved nieces, nephews, grandchildren and great-grandchildren.

Honoring her wishes, there will be no funeral service. The family will have a celebration of life at a later date.

In lieu of flowers or donations, Georgia would like you to do a kind act for someone.

Harry Richard 'Dick' Snow

Echo
June 14, 1932 — March 23, 2019

Dick Snow passed away after a brief illness on Saturday, March 23, 2019, at St. Mary's Hospital in Walla Walla, Washington, at the age of 86.

He is survived by his wife of nearly 14 years, Susan Byrd Snow. He was preceded in death by his wife of 51 years, Shirley Cunha Snow, and by his parents, Harry Hallett Snow and Della Morris Snow. He is survived by his five children, Denise Snow Howland, Summerville, Oregon, Rich Snow, Echo Oregon, Lisa Snow, Echo, Oregon, Stacey Snow, Culver, Oregon, and Sonia Snow, Hermiston, Oregon. He is also survived by his sister, Donna Snow Cable, Monmouth, Oregon. He has nine grandchildren and nine great-grandchildren.

Dick happily lived most of his 86 years in Echo, Oregon. He graduated from Echo High School, well known as an outstanding athlete around the area. He was chosen to be on the state Shrier's All-Star Football Team. Upon his graduation, he received a full-ride football scholarship to Washington State, unusual for an athlete from such a small school.

During his college years, he was drafted into the Army and served two years. He married Shirley Cunha on August 15, 1953. After his enlistment in the Army, Dick and Shirley moved back to Echo where they made their home as they began their family and long life of ranching and farming.

After Shirley's death in 2004, Dick married Susan Byrd. They worked side by side, and he happily lived out his life doing what he loved most — cattle ranching and farming. During his life, he gave back to his community by serving on numerous public service boards such as the Echo School Board and Echo City Council over the years, and was one of the original builders of the Echo Golf Course. He was even mayor of Echo at one time. He also was a member of various farming and cattlemen's associations, such as the Saler Cattle Association.

He was much loved and will be missed by his family and friends. Everyone who knows him has a story to tell about him. His boots will be hard to fill.

Dick would tell you that he was the lucky one. He was one of those rare individuals that got to make his living with his passion of cattle ranching and farming. He is the epitome of the "rugged individualist" that got to live life as his own boss and on his own terms (except when government intervened, of course) for most of his 86 years. In short, he was the classic "American cowboy," that rare American breed. But he would correct you by saying "no, cattleman."

Please honor Dick with giving to a charity of your choice in his name. And, maybe a tip of your cowboy hat to someone you love.

A funeral service with military honors will be held on Saturday, April 13, 2019, at 1:00 p.m. at the Echo High School gymnasium, Echo, Oregon. A private family burial will be at the Echo Cemetery, Echo, Oregon. Those wishing to bring a dish to share may contact Chris Bettencourt or Jan Zita.

Please share memories of Dick with his family at burns-mortuaryhermiston.com

Burns Mortuary of Hermiston, Oregon, is in care of arrangements.
