

PUBLIC SAFETY

MONDAY

5:52 a.m. — Four cows were in the road at East Elm Avenue and Northeast McNary Street, Hermiston.

7:42 a.m. — The Umatilla County Sheriff’s Office took a report for the theft of fuel from Zimmerman’s Autobody & Glass, 118 E. Main St., Athena.

8:50 a.m. — A Pendleton mother wanted to speak to an officer regarding behavior issues she has with her son.

9:37 a.m. — A Hermiston resident on Southwest Sage Drive asked to talk to an officer about the city’s noise ordinance and how his neighbor does not comply with it.

10:06 a.m. — The Morrow County Sheriff’s Office responded to Lakeview Heights, the eight-bed secure residential treatment facility on Willow Creek Road overlooking Heppner, for a resident who threw a coffee cup at a nurse, causing a cut to her face. The nurse declined medical help, and deputies arrested the client for misdemeanor assault.

12:48 p.m. — A Umatilla resident asked to have an officer tell her landlords they cannot be in her home while she is gone.

1:32 p.m. — A Morrow County sheriff’s deputy responded to Northeast Seventh Street, Irrigon, on a complaint about a dog roaming the neighborhood. The deputy warned the dog owner about allowing the pet to be a public nuisance.

3:45 p.m. — A Pendleton resident on Southwest 12th Drive reported someone poured sugar in the gas tank of his vehicle.

4:21 p.m. — A 911 caller reported a disturbance at Brooke RV Park, 5 N.E. Eighth St., Pendleton.

4:57 p.m. — Heppner residents complained about a black German shepherd loose and terrorizing other pets on Southeast Chase Street. One caller said the dog ate a chicken. A Morrow County sheriff’s deputy warned the dog’s owner for letting it run free.

5:05 p.m. — Pendleton police received a report of criminal mischief at Stillman Park, 413 S.E. Byers Ave.

6:08 p.m. — The Morrow County Sheriff’s Office responded to yet another dog complaint, this one on Southeast Kristen Drive, Heppner. A deputy talked to the person who reported the dog and to the dog’s owner, who received a citation for keeping a dog as a public nuisance and owing a potentially dangerous dog.

7:33 p.. — Hermiston police received a complaint about graffiti on property on Northeast Marty Drive.

7:52 p.m. — A 911 caller reported a burglary on Southeast Emigrant Avenue.

9:39 p.m. — Hermiston police responded to a report of an assault on the 1600 block of West Sunland Avenue.

OBITUARIES

Mike Campbell

Virginia City, Nev.
March 3, 1950 — September 30, 2018

On Sunday, September 30, 2018, Mike Campbell, 68, of Virginia City, Nevada, passed away peacefully surrounded by his loving family at Carson Tahoe Hospital in Carson City, Nevada.

He was born on March 3, 1950, in Walla Walla, Washington, to Robert Edwin “Bob” and Donna Maxine Campbell. Mike was raised alongside his brother and three sisters on the family farm north of Pendleton, Oregon.

Campbell

While in Nevada, Mike went to work from the Storey County School District in Virginia City. While working for the school, he found his true passion working with the Nevada Classified School Employees Association as part of the American Federation of Teachers-PS-RP-AFLCIO.

Mike spent countless hours lobbying, training, negotiating for better pay, work environments and fair treatment of its members.

Mike is survived by his loving wife of 48 years, Patsy of Virginia City; son Robert Campbell of Pendleton, Oregon; daughter Anita Campbell of Carson City, Nevada, and son Michael Campbell of Virginia City Nevada; niece Geneva (Andrew) Timpy of Irrigon, Oregon; sister Bernice (Paul) Good of Walla Walla, Washington and sister Donna (Harold) Wick of Colton, Oregon; grandchildren Tiffani Curtis of Carson City, Nevada, Tyler Curtis of Virginia City, Nevada, Bailey Campbell of Pendleton, Oregon, Scott Campbell of Iowa, and Lowell Campbell of California.

He was preceded in death by his father Robert, mother Maxine, brother Bobby, sister Susan and granddaughter Jessica.

Mike was a loving husband, an amazing father, the best Papa ever, a beloved member of the community and a diehard Oregon Ducks fan!

A Celebration of Life will be held on Saturday April 6, 2019, at 11:00 a.m. at Griswold High School in Helix, Oregon. Causal attire requested; a light lunch will be served.

Gary D. Searles

Stanfield
April 2, 1954 — March 30, 2019

Gary D. Searles of Stanfield was born April 2, 1954, in Coeur d’Alene, Idaho, the son of Neil and Marjorie (Shaffer) Searles. He passed away in Stanfield on Saturday, March 30, 2019, at the age of 64.

Gary moved to Oregon as a child, attending grade school in Pendleton and graduating from Imbler High School in the class of 1972. After high school, he served in the U.S. Army for four years.

While stationed in South Korea he met SonJin Yu. The couple was united in marriage in Umatilla, Oregon, on July 31, 1977.

He then attended BMCC in Pendleton and later Eastern Oregon University where he received his bachelor’s degree. The couple moved to Stanfield in 1983 where they have resided since.

Gary worked for Simplot for many years where he was a production supervisor. He then worked at the Walmart Distribution Center from the mid-1990s until 2013.

Gary enjoyed many outdoor activities, which included shooting, hunting, fishing, camping and going to the mountains. He also enjoyed working on his computer, listening to music and watching movies. He was a Christian and had a strong faith in God.

He is survived by his wife of 41 years, SonJin; daughter Jennifer (Mark) Rosser; sisters Marla Jean Rogers and Stacey JoAnne Wells; six grandchildren; and many nieces and nephews.

He was preceded in death by his parents, brother Ronald Neil Searles, and sister Sue Carol.

Private family services will be held. Arrangements by Burns Mortuary of Hermiston. To leave an online condolence for the family go to www.burnsmortuaryhermiston.com.

BRIEFLY

AAUW meeting highlights plastic

PENDLETON — The April general meeting of the American Association of University Women will feature a program titled “Recycling and the Ban on Plastics.”

The event is Thursday at 7 p.m. in the Vert Club Room, 345 S.W. Fourth St., Pendleton. Anyone who is interested is invited to attend.

The presentation will feature Kathy Aney, a journalist with the East Oregonian, and Mike McHenry, president of Pendleton Sanitary Service, Inc. Aney will share about her efforts and findings as she attempted to eliminate plastics from her life. McHenry will discuss the world of recycling, disposal and packaging, including information about bans on recyclable plastics and its impact locally and globally.

The AAUW works to improve the lives of women and girls through advocacy, education, philanthropy and research. The Pendleton branch is the nearest group in the region.

For more information, contact Marlene Krout at 541-276-7596 or mkaykrout@yahoo.com.

Oldies Night has no words

MILTON-FREEWATER — Instrumental classics from the 1960s will be featured during the upcoming Oldies Night in Milton-Freewater.

BJ the DJ will spin musical hits — everything from “Theme from a Summer Place” by Percy Faith, which spent nine weeks atop the Billboard Hot 100 chart, to “Walk — Don’t Run,” which began a series of 14 hit singles and 37 chart albums for The Ventures. Some of the tunes might be familiar as TV show theme songs and some from commercials. The free event is Saturday from 7-10 p.m. at Wesley United Methodist Church, 816 S. Main St., Milton-Freewater.

For more information, contact Bob Jones at dubuquer70@gmail.com, or call 541-938-7028.

Free talk highlights piano learning

PENDLETON — A free lecture for pianists, piano teachers and others who are interested is being offered by the Umatilla-Morrow District of the Oregon Music Teachers Association.

Matt Katz will present “Becoming the Accompanist” Saturday from 10 a.m. to noon at the First Presbyterian Church, 201 S.W. Dorion Ave., Pendleton. Pre-registration is not required.

Katz will discuss basic activities that can assist students in becoming an accompanist. The presentation will cover how to quickly learn a song by ear as well as sight-reading an accompanied piece quickly. The workshop includes demonstrations and audience participation.

The program is presented in partnership with the Oregon Community Foundation and the Nellie Tholen Fund. For more information, contact Sue Nelson at 541-276-0346 or musicdoc3@mac.com.

U.S. Cellular sets youth fundraisers

Local youth organizations can earn up to $1,000 through U.S. Cellular’s Community Connections program.

In its fifth year, the program provides sponsorship support to help youth groups pay for expenses such as travel, equipment and uniforms. Since launching the program, U.S. Cellular has awarded more than $1.3 million to nearly 2,900 groups, including traveling sports teams, STEM programs, school marching bands and dance squads.

Academic and athletic groups representing kids and teens through 12th grade need to register to become eligible to receive sponsorship funds.

Once registered, groups have 14 days to rally their friends, families and supporters to complete online activities, including following U.S. Cellular on social media, watching a video or answering a short survey.

For more information, to view official rules or to register, visit www.uscellular.com/communityconnections. For questions, contact Madison Kaplan at mkaplan@garcommunications.com.
