An ambulance took Cornuck to an area hospital. State police did not report on the seriousness of his injuries, and there is no indication of any citations.

10:23 p.m. — Oregon State Police reported a 24-year-old Walla Walla woman crashed on Highway 207 near milepost 19 in Morrow County.

The driver was unfamiliar with the area, according to state police, and heading north when she ran over a patch of gravel and over-corrected, causing her Toyota Corolla to roll onto the shoulder. The driver said she was in pain, and an ambulance took her to Good Shepherd Medical Center, Hermiston.

Three vehicles were in a caravan from Idaho on Interstate 84 heading west near milepost 163 when a silver Dodge Durango crossed lanes in front of the second vehicle.
