

Gear Show & Sale

Sponsored by Tandy Leather

Bit, Spur & Engraving Show

Friday and Saturday, May 3-4

Almost an art show in and of itself, the Pendleton Cattle Barons Bit, Spur and Engraving Show exhibits literally the best work in the world. With entries from all over North America, the show displays amazing working bits, spurs, knives, and nearly anything the imagination can conjure. The Bit, Spur & Engraving show begins Friday from noon to 7pm and continues Saturday from 9am to 5pm.

Artists from around the country will bring their best creations that capture the western way of life for their chance to win Best In Show. We'll be exhibiting this completely unique collection of finery during the Cattle Baron's Weekend for everyone to enjoy. Many pieces will be for sale. New this year: We will be showcasing entries online for sale. Take a piece of authentic cowboy gear home with you.

For more information, contact Amy Raymond at raymond\_silver@hotmail.com or call 541-457-2366.

Tooled Leather Contest and Show

Friday and Saturday, May 3-4

At this year's Leather Contest we want to see a wide variety to leather projects. Anything that can be used, worn or displayed made from leather qualifies. The only requirement is that it have at least a 4 inch by 1.5 inch tooled piece. Hand carve or stamp, whatever you prefer. Send us your chaps, bags, belts, wallets, briefcases or anything else you may have! Contest entries will be judged on five areas: Uniqueness, Difficulty, Quality, Creativity, and Overall Eye Appeal.

New This Year: Metal Smithing Class

Thursday and Friday, May 2-3

Learn to fabricate a work of art in metal! Jill Skinner of Classy Trailer Designs will give one-on-one instruction on how to make a ring and a necklace. Learn about the process of designing and creating these and walk away with both items you have handmade from start to finish. Materials and tools will be provided. Limit 10 students. For more information, contact Amy Raymond at 541-457-2366.

Tradin' Post

Sponsored by D&B Supply

From fine working gear to beautiful western art; the Pendleton Cattle Barons Trade Show has something to offer everyone in the cowboy world. In addition, cattlemen and horseman will enjoy visiting with representatives from feed, animal health, and livestock handling companies at one of the most unique and ranching oriented Tradin' Posts anywhere. The Western Art Rodeo Association will also have an exhibit of western art on display.

For more information contact Allie Wilgus: alliewilgus@yahoo.com or 360-901-3109.

Working Dog Clinic

Broken Circle Border Collies Dog Clinic

Thursday, May 2, 8 a.m. – 4 p.m.

Friday, May 3, 8 a.m. – Noon

Robin and Rocky Brown bring more than 30 years of experience to help walk you through all aspects of training your dog. Learn problem solving, practical work, and understanding your dog through pressure and release.

