Boedigheimer also reported the victim suffered the injury at about 9:45 p.m. at 392 Raspberry Loop near space No. 4, and he was not releasing the identities of the victim or suspect because the investigation is ongoing.

ARRESTS, CITATIONS

FRIDAY

•Oregon State Police at 1:24 p.m. responded to a Chevrolet pickup that crashed into the guardrail on the westbound side of Interstate 84 near milepost 228 at Deadman Pass. The trooper arrested the driver, Hyrum Levoy Wilson, 46, of Nampa, Idaho, for DUII (alcohol) and reckless driving.

According to state police, Wilson's blood-alcohol content was 0.29 percent, more than three times the legal limit.

•Jose Antonio Adorno, 69, of Milton-Freewater, faces numerous charges stemming from a shooting investigation.

Milton-Freewater police Chief Doug Boedigheimer reported dispatch at 2:30 p.m. received a call about gunshots near the intersection of 12th Avenue and Mill Street. Multiple officers responded, and one officer detained a suspect near the city library, 722 S. Main St., but the man did not have a gun.

Police during the investigation learned that Adorno and another male were in an argument over money and/or property, according to Boedigheimer, when Adorno "allegedly fired one shot" from a .12-gauge shotgun from inside his home at the victim, who was standing in 12th Avenue near Mill.

Several pellets struck the victim, but he was not seriously injured, the police chief reported, suffering only minor marks, and he refused medical assistance.

Police arrested Adorno and booked him into the Umatilla County Jail, Pendleton, on charges of attempted unlawful use of a weapon, pointing a firearm at another, menacing, reckless endangering, fourth-degree assault, harassment, second-degree disorderly conduct and discharging a weapon across a highway. Officers also seized the shotgun and placed it into custody.

•Hermiston police arrested Ronald Dale Leslie, 29, of Hermiston, for third-degree criminal mischief, felony methamphetamine possession and on a warrant for failure to appear.

•Oregon State Police arrested Faust Medinadiaz, 60, for DUII.

•Umatilla County Sheriff's Office arrested Jovanni Lemus and Julio Cesar Lemus, both 19 and of Hermiston, on weapons-related charges. Jovanni Lemus faces second-degree disorderly conduct, attempted unlawful use of a weapon and misrepresentation age by a minor, and Julio Lemus faces second-degree disorderly conduct and unlawful possession of a firearm. All the charges are misdemeanors.

SATURDAY

•Pendleton police arrested David Jerry Haney, 28 for harassment and first-degree forgery.

•Hermiston police arrested John Dario Godinez, 60, of Hermiston, for felony driving while suspended/revoked, hit-and-run on property and reckless driving.

SUNDAY

•Umatilla police arrested Benjamin Delacruz Perez, 38, of Umatilla, for first-degree burglary, harassment, interfering with making a report and on a warrant for failure to appear.

•Boardman police arrested Miguel Gutierrez, 23, of Boardman, for interfering with a peace officer, felony attempt to elude and DUII.

•Milton-Freewater police arrested Sherri Stubenrauch, 58, of Milton-Freewater, for domestic violence charges of fourth-degree assault and harassment.

•Oregon State Police arrested Lawrence Azar Spino II, 26, of Warm Springs, for DUII.

OBITUARIES

Ruby Lucille Sams

Thornhollow
August 2, 1926 — April 6, 2019

Ruby Lucille Sams died peacefully at her home in Thornhollow, surrounded by her children.

Sams

Ruby was born August 2, 1926, on the Fort Peck Indian Reservation in Poplar, Montana, to Chauncey F. Whitright and Mary Cecelia Akers. Ruby's mother died when she was 5 years old; she lived with various relatives, and eventually she and her brother Chauncey ended up living with and raised by their maternal grandmother. Ruby was Yanktonias Sioux, an enrolled member of the Fort Peck Indian Reservation.

In 1939 Ruby was 13 years old and was sent to Chemawa Indian Boarding School, where she met the love of her life, Charles "Chuck" Sams, a young man from the Umatilla Indian Reservation. Ruby and Chuck were married April 20, 1943, in Walla Walla, Washington. Ruby spent the next several years living at Thornhollow.

Upon Chuck's return home from the military, the family moved to Weston, Oregon, were they resided for the next 50 years.

During those years in Weston Ruby raised her family and three nephews who lived with her and Chuck in order to finish high school, not to mention many other kids who resided off and on in the Sams household; there was always room for one more.

Ruby was a domestic engineer, managing a household of 10 or more at all times, housework, home-cooked meals every day, going to sports activities, seeing to it that homework and grades were kept up, and maintaining peace and order at all times, which was not always an easy task at the Sams home, but Ruby ran a tight ship.

Ruby enjoyed life; she enjoyed her family, grandkids, great-grandkids, family gatherings, reading, playing cards, watching old westerns, and Archie Bunker reruns. Ruby loved Bingo, and most of all the casino, where she made many friends.

Ruby's kindness to others and thoughtfulness in giving and devotion to her family was unsurpassed. She laughed often and loved with all her heart. We will miss her dearly but are deeply blessed to have had her in our lives.

Ruby was preceded in death by her husband of 55 years in 1998. In 2000 Rubyreturn to Thornhollow to live with her son.

Ruby is survived by three sons, Charles "Butch" Sams Jr. (Sarah), Pendleton, Oregon, Dave Sams, Thornhollow, and Kim Sams (Kala), Weston, Oregon; four daughters, Mari Tester, Walla Walla, Washington, and Margaret Sams, Sally Kosey (Dave) and Tammy Sams, all of Pendleton; grandchildren Tonyia Tester-Loyer (Jeff), Bothell, Washington, Charles F. Sams III (Lori), Ryan E. Sams (Nikki), Aaron Noisy, Preston Bronson, Sam Sams, Corinne Sams, Feather Husties-Sams, (Raymond), and Jake E. Kosey, all of Pendleton, Oregon, and Jen Shipp and Chrissy Gaitan-Finney, Eugene, Oregon; and 20 great-grandchildren.

Also survived by brothers Ralph Whitright, Seattle, Washington, and Alan Whitright, Hoodsport, Washington.

She was preceded in death by her husband Chuck, her sons Donald, John "Sluggo" and Jack Sams, brothers Chauncey and Curtis Whitright, and sisters Joyce Hahn and Dorothy Todd.

Funeral Mass will be held on Saturday, May 18 at 11:00 a.m. at St. Andrews Church in Mission, Oregon.

Carolyn LaVonne Mader

Echo
March 16, 1934 — May 11, 2019

Caroline LaVonne Mader, 85, beloved wife, mother, grandmother, great-grandmother and friend, passed May 11, 2019.

Mader

LaVonne was the ninth of 10 children born to William and Mary Kate Hall Willson. She was born March 16, 1934, in the house she was brought up in near Colfax, Wash. She attended Steptoe Grade School and graduated from Colfax High School in 1952. LaVonne attended the University of Idaho and was a member of the Kappa Kappa Gamma sorority. She graduated in 1957 with a major in music and minors in physical and elementary education.

She taught school one year and substituted many years. In August 1955 she married Frank Mader in Colfax. They lived in Texas and Louisiana while Frank was in the Army. They worked and saved to buy their first cattle ranch near Jordan Valley, Oregon, and raised their two children, Shannon and Kirk, there.

With the nearest church being 30 miles away and God being extremely important to her, LaVonne started an American Missionary Fellowship Sunday School & Bible Study that met two times a month in homes on Succor Creek. She also taught music at the country school her kids attended. In 1977 they moved to Ruby Valley, Nev., and then in 1979 moved to the Butter Creek farm near Echo, Oregon, where they lived for almost 40 years.

LaVonne is survived by daughter Shannon (Tim) Rust, Echo, Ore.; son Kirk (Donna) Mader, Orovada, Nev.; five grandchildren: Brian Rust (Jordan), Brooke Carnine (Randy), Brynna Rust, Quinn Briggs (Chase), and Kade Mader; and three great-grandchildren: Karsten and Rhett Carnine, and Andy Rust. LaVonne had numerous nieces and nephews who were very special to her.

LaVonne was preceded in death by her husband Frank in 2016.

LaVonne's greatest joys were being a mom and grandmother and investing in her friendships. Sewing, yard work, music and helping Frank achieve his goals were an important part of her life. She was a member of Hermiston First Christian Church and sang in the choir. She belonged to the Pine City Extension Study Group, Oregon Cattlemen's Association and Oregon Wheat Grower's League. LaVonne was extremely devoted to family, whether it was her siblings or her children and grandchildren.

Contributions may be made to Sharing Alongside, P.O. Box 33663, Seattle, WA 98133 (Gary and Miriam Mader Barckert) or First Christian Church Memorial Fund, 775 W. Highland Ave. Hermiston, OR 97838.

Services will be held at the First Christian Church on Monday, May 20, 2019, at 1:00 p.m. with a luncheon to follow. A graveside service will be in Colfax, Wash., at Colfax Cemetery, on Tuesday, May 21, 2019, at 11 a.m.
