

PUBLIC SAFETY

WEDNESDAY

7:44 a.m. — Pendleton police received a theft report from a resident of Southwest Seventh Street.

9:30 a.m. — A resident of East Hurlburt Avenue, Hermiston, reported a vehicle break-in sometime during the previous night. Nothing was stolen, he said, but the prowler left his gas tank open.

9:43 a.m. — Police in Umatilla responded to a report of graffiti at the Umatilla footbridge.

10:05 a.m. — Hermiston police received a report that a Hermiston resident lost money on a grant scam.

10:46 a.m. — Pendleton fire crews were called to a grass fire at Southeast Fourth Street and Southeast Emigrant Avenue, just south of the railroad tracks.

11:26 a.m. — A call for a theft in progress on South First Place, Pendleton, led to an arrest.

11:54 a.m. — Cows were out of their pasture and roaming in the area of Stateline Road and Meissner Lane near Milton-Freewater, including some on Valley Chapel Road on the Washington side of the state line, a closed range. The Umatilla County Sheriff's Office contacted the cows' owner.

12:06 p.m. — A vehicle was reported stolen from Southwest Sandy Place, Hermiston.

12:55 p.m. — Theft was reported at a residence on Northwest Ellis Avenue, Pendleton. Another theft report at 3:24 p.m. from Southeast Sixth Street and Southeast Court Avenue also received a response from Pendleton police.

1:17 p.m. — Hermiston police received a report of the theft of prescription medication from a resident of Southwest 11th Street.

2:09 p.m. — Pendleton police responded to a report of harassment at Sunridge Middle School, 700 S.W. Runnion Ave. Another report of harassment came in at 2:30 p.m. the Roundup Athletic Club, 1415 Southgate.

2:25 p.m. — A Hermiston man witnessed a vehicle break-in in a rear parking lot at a business on North First Street. The caller told Hermiston police the thief headed north on Highway 395.

3:39 p.m. — A Morrow County sheriff's deputy responded to Highway 207 near Heppner to free a deer trapped in a fence near Willow Creek.

4:30 p.m. — Pilot Rock police were called to a domestic disturbance on Northeast Douglas Street.

5:50 p.m. — Stanfield police received a call from a former resident of a home on Ramos Lane whose belongings were taken to a house in the area of South Thielsen and Jane streets. He requested law enforcement assistance in retrieving his belongings.

7:28 p.m. — Pendleton police investigated a report of graffiti on the river levee a block west of the Main Street bridge.

8:29 p.m. — A business on South Highway 395, Hermiston, called Hermiston police to report a woman tried to pay for her child's candy with a fake $100 bill and then left without paying.
