Climax

A newly assembled group of dancers comes together in an abandoned school gymnasium to rehearse an elaborate and complex dance routine, and once the practice is over, the after-party begins. As the night of dancing and celebration wears on, the dancers come to realize that someone has spiked the sangria with a large quantity of LSD and that their mental states have been wildly altered as a result. The party descends into a nightmare of hallucinations, confusion, accusations, violence and sex as the dancers try to deal with the bizarre situation.
