Hermiston's Bailee Noland likely will get the start Friday against Bonney Lake at the 3A state tournament.

Hermiston to play defending champs

The Bulldogs will take on Bonney Lake at noon Friday

By ANNIE FOWLER
East Oregonian

The Hermiston softball team was making good use of Kennison Field this week, working on its defensive skills.

With the 3A state tournament being played at the Regional Athletic Complex in Lacey, Washington, which has artificial turf on the infield and grass in the outfield, the Bulldogs needed to get a feel for the playing surface.

"That's why we have been on the football field all week," Hermiston coach Kate Greenough said. "If we didn't have that, we wouldn't get the preparation we need."

The Bulldogs (16-8), the No. 2 team from District 8, will open state play at noon Friday against Bonney Lake (20-2).

"They look like they are a good team," Greenough said.

"They have a good pitcher. We have to play them sometime. We might as well get them out of the way first. The good thing about softball, is any day, anybody can hang."

The defending state champion Panthers feature pitcher Brooke Nelson, who is headed to the University of Washington in the fall.

Nelson also was named the 2018 Gatorade Washington Player of the Year after ringing up 306 strikeouts, six no-hitters and hitting 21 home runs.

The Bulldogs, who were the No. 3 seed from the Mid-Columbia Conference in the District 8 tournament, have played some of their best ball the past two weeks.

The Bulldogs won back-to-back games against Shadle Park and Kennewick to reach the title game against Southridge, which the Suns won 4-2.

Hermiston came back to earn the second seed to state with a win over Kennewick.

"They are super excited to represent their conference," Greenough said of her team.

"It has been exciting to see them turn the tide a little bit. They have only had two errors in the past four games. They have picked a good time to play like they can."

The Bulldogs have come to rely on junior Bailee Noland in the circle the last half of the season, and she's also been productive at the plate, hitting .597 with 30 RBIs and seven home runs.

The Bulldogs' team batting average is .385, and they are averaging 7.3 runs per game.

Mac-Hi softball cruises to 4A playoff victory

East Oregonian

Mac-Hi's softball team, which took second in the Greater Oregon League standings, proved that round one of the 4A state playoffs was not much of a problem, either.

On Wednesday, the Pioneers breezed through a five-inning, 14-3 home victory against Stayton.

The Pioneers put up four runs in their first offensive showing, but they would outdo themselves one inning later, scoring six in the bottom of the second.

Courtney Cain, Graci Bullock, Ashlyn Marly, and Bella Perkins all drove in runs.

Meanwhile, Stayton was still without a run.

The Pioneers tallied 16 runs for the day — 10 more than Stayton. Cain hit a perfect 2-for-2, scoring two runs and four RBIs. Bullock's 3-for-4 showing in the batter's box scored three runs and put three more runs on the board, and Perkins added four more RBIs.

On Friday, Mac-Hi travels to Banks for the 4A quarterfinals. Westside Mobile Media will broadcast the game over the radio. First pitch is at 3 p.m.

2A/1A softball

LAKEVIEW 5, WESTON-MCEWEN 0 — Lakeview pitcher Alyson Yates fanned nine and held Weston-McEwen without a run to knock the TigerScots out of the running for the state title on Wednesday.

Weston-McEwen pitcher McKenna Stallings threw nine strikeouts of her own, but gave up 12 hits and five runs as the Honkers kept the game in their favor.

Stallings also went 3-for-4 at the plate, but never made it home.

The round two loss ended the TigerScots' playoff run.
