ADVANCED GLAZING TECHNIQUES

with Nathan Prouty

SATURDAY, NOON – 4:00 PM

July 20 (one session)

Nathan Prouty is a ceramics professor and contemporary artist whose work has been widely exhibited and reviewed by major publications. We're thrilled to have him visit PCA for a session specific to glazing. Prouty will discuss technical as well as conceptual issues, drawing on his deep knowledge of both. He'll touch on glaze application troubleshooting, stenciling, sgraffito, airbrushing/ spraying, colored underglazes/slips, printed decals, lusters and tinting claybodies. Students are encouraged to bring examples or images of work to reverse engineer, in order to understand how an artist got a certain effect or surface. Open to both beginning and experienced ceramics enthusiasts.
