the weather. "It's amazing what the finals at state will do to your adrenaline," Brizendine said.

In the high jump, Shawn Yeager cleared 6 feet, 2 inches to place second.

"That was amazing," Brizendine said. "It was a great way to start the day."

In the long jump, Edwin Linares had a mark of 20-10½ to place fourth.

"It was raining so hard, it was hard to get down the runway and get off," Brizendine said. "He wasn't far off his best."

The Bucks' 4x100 relay team of Cam Sanford, Aaron Luke, Blake Davis and Aiden Patterson finished sixth in a time of 44.07.

"The handoffs were clean," Brizendine said, "but there was some good competition."

The Pendleton boys finished sixth in the team race with 47 points. North Bend won the team title with 72.5 points.

In the girls 300 hurdles, senior Elisabeth House turned in a time of 46.60 to place third.

Thurston's Adael Scatena won in a time of 43.52, breaking the state record of 44.22, set by Liberty's Olivia Ferrara in 2010.

"That group was so fast and she hung with them," Brizendine said of House.

Freshman Muriel Hoisington finished eighth in the 400 meters, clocking a 1:01.94.

"She wasn't feeling well, but she ran great and got on the podium," Brizendine said.

The Pendleton girls' 4x100 relay finished 11th (51.53), while its 4x400 team was 12th (4:22.40).

The Bucks were 23rd in the team standings with 8 points. North Salem won the team title with 119 points.

second with a toss of 128-8.

"I actually didn't pay too much attention to the other throwers," Romero said. "I just made sure my mark was at the top. The medal is pretty cool. At Hayward (Field), they let us bring our javelins on the podium, so I brought mine up."

Romero, who finished third at the Oregon 5A state championships last year as a sophomore with a throw of 134-3, has put in the work to be competitive in Washington.

She threw her PR of 151-9 at the Mid-Columbia Conference district meet in Hermiston, then threw 143 feet at the District 8 meet in Richland to earn the top seed to state.

Also competing Saturday was Kaylee Young in the long jump.

Young, who has jumped more than 17 feet this season, finished 13th with a mark of 16-0½ in the prelims. She did not make the finals.

Camille Duckett of Roosevelt won the event with a leap of 18-0½.

The competitors jumped in the pouring rain, but Young said she didn't mind.

"It was very cold and rainy, but I enjoyed every second of it," Young said.

"The environment was very positive. I got so many questions about where Hermiston was. The officials wondered if they were going to take my marks and report them to Oregon."

Just a sophomore, Young hopes to make a return visit next year.

"I hope next year to get a spot on the podium," she said. "I'm ready to step back on the track now."

Pac-12 champion UCLA earns No. 1 national seed for NCAA baseball tournament

By ERIC OLSON

OMAHA, Nebraska — Pac-12 champion UCLA won each of its series for the first time in program history, didn't lose a midweek game and ended the regular season on a 10-game winning streak.

The Bruins (47-8) were rewarded for their remarkable consistency Monday with the No. 1 national seed in the NCAA Tournament.

"We have a terrific conference. We believe it's the No. 1 conference in the country from top to bottom," UCLA coach John Savage said. "The competitiveness they were challenged with all season, we stepped up, and we definitely feel we're prepared for the next part of the season."

The 64-team tournament opens Friday in 16 regionals. Winners advance to eight best-of-three super regionals. Those winners move on to the College World Series in Omaha.

The No. 2 seed is Vanderbilt (49-10), which has won 22 of its last 23 games and is the first team to sweep the Southeastern Conference regular-season and tournament championships since it did so in 2007.

Behind UCLA and Vanderbilt are Georgia Tech (41-17), Georgia (44-15), Arkansas (41-17), Mississippi State (46-13), Louisville (43-15) and Texas Tech (39-17).

The top eight seeds play at home for super regionals if they win their regionals.

Seeds nine through 16 are Oklahoma State (36-18), East Carolina (43-15), Stanford (41-11), Mississippi (37-25), LSU (37-24), North Carolina (42-17), West Virginia (37-20) and defending national champion Oregon State (36-18-1).

Mac-Hi softball ends season with heartbreaker

Banks gets walk-off win over Pioneers in 4A quarterfinals

By BRETT KANE
East Oregonian

It came down to the final inning, but Mac-Hi ultimately took home a narrow defeat to end their softball season.

Madison Graham delivered a two-run, walk-off single to lift the Braves to a 6-5 win over the Pioneers Friday in the 4A quarterfinals in Banks.

Despite the loss, the Pioneers jumped out with the lead early on. With two outs on the board in the top of the first, Courtney Cain drew a walk, and Ally Marly singled on a hard ground ball to left field on the next at-bat. Graci Bullock followed with a double to score both runners.

But the Braves evened things out in the bottom of the third. Kaylin Hernandez bunted Haelee Saunders home, and Emma White hit an RBI single to tie the score at 2-2.

Three scoreless innings went by before Lexi Montgomery scored on Graci Bullock's walk to put the Pioneers ahead 3-2 in the top of the seventh. Bella Perkins doubled on a line drive to left field to score Cain and Marly.

But the Braves put up four runs in the bottom of the seventh. Abigail Campbell scored on a wild pitch to tie the score at 5-5, and Graham's single sealed the Pioneers' fate.

Sydney Earls fanned nine Braves and threw just one walk for the Pioneers. Bullock sent three runners across the plate, and Marly's 2-for-3 batting performance scored two runs.

Mac-Hi ended their season with a 17-9 overall record.
