Arthur Delane 'Art' Merriman Jr.

Pendleton
July 8, 1948 — June 26, 2018

Arthur "Art" Delane Merriman Jr. of Pendleton, Ore., passed away at his residence on June 26, 2018.

Merriman Jr.

He was born on July 8, 1948, in Pendleton to Virginia Fouquette and Arthur Delane Merriman. He attended school in Pendleton and graduated in 1966. As a youth, under the direction of coach and mentor Tom La Sarge, Art played on the all-star baseball team. In high school, he went to state in wrestling. Tom was always in the stands at Arts games and matches. The friendship between Art and Tom lasted a lifetime.

One of the proudest days of Art's life came in 2016, when he and his fellow football student manager were inducted, along with the 1966 football team, into the Pendleton Football Hall of Fame. Art was huge sports fan and always watched the playoffs, and especially loved the Oregon Ducks.

He graduated from University of Oregon in 1970, with a degree in recreation management. After the Army, using the GI bill, Art also earned an associate's degree in construction management from Lane Community College.

With his college deferment gone and his draft number of 13, and not being born with a silver spoon in his mouth, Art was going into military. Art decided to enlist in the Army rather than be drafted. He became a sergeant upon completion of advanced supply school training. He managed an NCO club stateside. He spent the rest of his enlistment ordering helicopter parts, while stationed in Germany. Art was a Vietnam Era veteran and after his honorable discharge he moved back to Eugene.

He married Rosemarie Murphey on September 15, 1990. He was the smartest man she had ever meet, the best friend she ever had, but because Art thought he was always right, and it felt like she was throwing herself against a brick wall whenever she disagreed with him. Art found having a friendship with Rose was easy because she was a free spirit and did everything spur of the moment, she had heart of gold, her values, which she learned at the apron strings of her mom and her Grandma Dungan, were instilled in her before she ever stepped on a school bus. Art admired her mind, but like anybody else who knew her or knew of her, was a bit afraid of her, because he knew that if she got mad enough at you, she would and could beat the crap out of you, and if you hurt a child, she was just likely to shoot you rather than look at you.

Art became a brother to her siblings and could be found at all family functions. Everybody in the family loved having Art around because that man always came prepared for everything, plus he was a darn good cook.

Art owned his own construction business for the seven years when he lived at the beach. He worked for Bonneville Power and supervised the remodel of corporate offices for Payless Drug Stores in Wilsonville. He worked as a construction project manager with the Oregon National Guard and the Department of Corrections. When he retired, he had been working in construction management with the Salem/Keizer School District.

He loved to hunt and always looked forward to hunting for deer and birds with his friends. He was a very good person, a good friend, and generous to the people he loved. Art had a wide variety of unique and interesting friends and once he was your friend, you had a friend for life. Art was a member of Lambda Chi Alpha fraternity at UO and maintained those brotherhood friendships for the rest of his life.

Art is survived by his wife Rose Murphey of Pendleton, stepdaughter Jaelyn Penner Sites, Rigby, Idaho, and cousin Dean Fouquette of Pendleton. He also leaves behind a large mixture of unique and interesting friends, including best friends Larry Franke and Lee Moriarty. He was preceded in death by his parents, and his only sibling, Richard Merriman.

A celebration of life potluck will be held Sunday, June 2, 2019, at 1 p.m. at the Salvation Army fellowship hall, 150 S.E. Emigrant Ave., Pendleton. For additional information, call Rose at 541-567-4446.
