team defense for Boston's eight-game playoff winning streak, the first in the NHL since the L.A. Kings in 2012 — just don't overlook how all the layers of offense can affect opponents.

"Usually the teams that are still left here are the teams that have that depth and four lines who can skate and wear teams down," Bruins center Charlie Coyle said. "It's not just two, three lines doing that. It's every time a line's out there making something happen whether it's something little or scoring a big goal or playing solid defensively or wearing them down in their own end. That's hard to play against through four continuous lines."

Umatilla National Forest holds free youth fishing event

East Oregonian

PENDLETON — The Umatilla National Forest, the city of Ukiah, local businesses and community members host a "Free Kids Fishing Day" Saturday from 8 a.m. to 1 p.m. at Twin Ponds.

"Fishing instruction, a raffle, snacks, activities and prizes make this event a day of fun for children and adults alike," according to the announcement from the Umatilla National Forest.

The first 100 children will receive complementary buckets with free fishing tackle. The event also includes a raffle of various prizes and giveaways for children, all donations from area businesses.

The event is free for children 16 and under. Children participating in this event must be accompanied by an adult. Fishing poles will be available on loan for those who do not have one, and volunteers will be on site to provide instruction to first-time anglers.

Free hot dogs and soda pop will be available to all youth who register and participate.

Twin Ponds is 6.7 miles south of Ukiah. Drive south on Camas Creek Road/County Road 531/ Forest Service Road 52 for 6.7 miles and turn right onto a flagged, unnamed road. Follow the banners on the roads.

For more information on the 2019 Ukiah fishing derby, contact Steve Boe at 541-427-5305 or stephan.boe@usda.gov. For additional information on the Umatilla National Forest, please visit <https://www.fs.usda.gov/umatilla>

This event falls on the Oregon Department of Wildlife's free fishing weekend. According to ODFW, fishing, crabbing and clamming is free Saturday and Sunday anywhere in Oregon for both residents and non-residents. While anglers will not need licenses or tags, all other fishing regulations apply, including closures, bag limits and size restrictions.

NBA: Reigning Warriors vs. newcomer Raptors

secutive seasons.

By the time Game 1 rolls around, the Warriors will have been off for 10 days. They scrimmaged Saturday to break up the monotony.

"I think we try and be smart with it," Iguodala said. "We got a few guys just trying to get back from injury and it's given us some time to get that rest and take advantage of it."

Warriors coach Steve Kerr has a chance at his ninth championship. He won five as a player, has three already as a coach and is going to the finals for the 10th time in his last 13 seasons in either of those roles.

"It's not like we've come to expect it, but we're veterans of this experience and this run and our guys know how to finish games," Kerr said. "They know how to win playoff series, and so there's a sense of confidence going into every round. There's still a sense of joy and accomplishment getting to the finals. It's so hard to do."

For Leonard, it'll be the first trip to the finals since he was MVP of the series in 2014.

And it only continues to prove that his first year in Toronto was a success.

Traded to the Raptors last summer by San Antonio — DeMar DeRozan was the big piece the Spurs got — Leonard, his health and whether he'd fit in in Toronto was one of the major storylines entering this season.

Asked and answered.

Leonard has averaged 31.2 points and 8.8 rebounds in the playoffs, had a 27-point, 17-rebound, seven-assist effort in the win over Milwaukee that clinched the East on Saturday, and had perhaps the biggest moment of this postseason when his buzzer-beater hit the rim four times before dropping to beat Philadelphia in Game 7 of the second round.

"He's been great," Kerr said. "Not surprising, though. He's got his finals MVP a few years ago. One of the best players in the league, so he's been great."

Game 2 is in Toronto on June 2, followed by Games 3 and 4 at Oracle Arena on June 5 and June 7.

Either Game 4 or Game 6 — on June 13, if it goes that far — will be the final time the Warriors call that building home. They're leaving Oakland after this season for the brand-new Chase Center in San Francisco.

The Raptors swept the season series, though there are plenty of reasons not to make too big a deal out of that. For starters, the teams haven't played since Dec. 12. And neither team was at full strength in either of those games — Durant scored 51 in a 131-128 loss at Toronto in a game in which the Warriors didn't have Curry, Cousins or Green; the Raptors won by 20 at Oracle even without Leonard two weeks later.

Regardless, it can now be said: Toronto and the Bay lay claim to the NBA's two best teams this season.
